

tion of pay of federal employees for another six months.	age to the Legislature, which convened today.	Continued on Page 1, Column 6	by airplane for New York to sail Saturday for England.	SOCIETY 8 SKIPPY 13
--	---	-------------------------------	--	------------------------------------

BORAH LAUDS HEARST PROGRAM FOR REPUBLICAN PARTY

CWA PROJECTS END MAY, PWA TO ABSORB WORKERS

Employees To Be Conditioned for Taking Up Services in Other Lines of Endeavor

Washington, Jan. 9 (INS)—Termination of all civil works throughout the country May 1 at the latest was set today by Harry L. Hopkins, federal administrator. If possible, he said, it should be ended by mid-April.

Even with the projected appropriation by Congress of $100,000,000, the amount needed to continue the program to that date, Hopkins said the Civil Works Administration will be "out of business by May 1, and perhaps sooner."

Demobilization actually will begin on the first of next month in some sections of the deep South, where war weather and the resumption of planting will solve the unemployment problem in part.

Hopkins is counting on increased employment in the regular public works activities to absorb many of the temporarily employed workers in his jurisdiction.

Others are nominally engaged in farm work which can carry them over. Part-time workers on seasonal jobs also will be able to maintain themselves after May 1, he hoped.

Termination of the civil works aid does not mean that federal relief will cease at that time, Hopkins emphasized. In the meanwhile he was studying the demand to date. The civil works was adopted when it became apparent the regular public works program could not possibly expand in time to absorb any considerable part of the millions of unemployed workers.

Cost of the temporary stop employment under civil works was estimated, he said, to be a group of workers much better physically to cope with their jobs when employment is available.

A survey of accidents among civil works employees, and of accident prevention, has convinced Hopkins that a large number of these employees were in poor condition.

Whistles Out From Hiding on Police

Whistles for policemen, like bayonets for soldiers, should be worn where they can be reached in a hurry. At least that is the idea expressed by City Marshal James F. Mory, of Brockton.

Hastily giving an "as you were" order, the police chief began an investigation which disclosed 90 per cent of the whistles were tucked out of sight behind a half-dozen uniform buttons.

A very terse and very frank talk followed and the policemen went to work with whistles dangling proudly from their chests.

The marshal inspecting the police department, ordered the patrolmen to show their whistles. He was horrified when the force appeared to be unimpressed, or at least taking their coats off.

Physically, soft from enforced idleness, or inexperienced in the type of work they were doing.

A program of safety education is under way to offset mistakes, while the daily jobs the workers are on will condition them physically.

G. C. P. TO MARCH ON STATE HOUSE

Streets Blocked About Chamber of Deputies in a Demonstration

Paris, Jan. 9 (AP)—Huge forces of mounted and foot police were rushed to the Place Bourbon today to surround the Chamber of Deputies in a demonstration.

The march was led by a group of 100 men, many of whom carried flags and banners. They were met by a line of police on horseback.

The demonstrators were ordered to disperse, but refused to do so. They were then charged by the police.

The demonstration was the result of a dispute over the appointment of a new government.

Elimination of Bureaucracy on Waste Curtailment, Advocated by Publisher, Championed in Solon's Address

New York, Jan. 9 (US)—Senator William E. Borah expressed his agreement with what he called a "splendid program," the program suggested yesterday by William Randolph Hearst as the patriotic duty of the Republican party.

The Republican veterans from Iowa, who came to New York to speak at a dinner of the Council on Foreign Relations at the Ritz Carlton, declared:

AGREE WITH HEARST

I agree with William Randolph Hearst that the Republican party has an important duty to perform, and I further agree with most of the propositions as laid down by Mr. Hearst.

I have been much of a partisan, and now there is no question in my mind that I think Mr. Hearst has laid out a splendid program, generally speaking, and I am glad to agree with him when he earnestly urges a limitation and curtailment of federal waste and the elimination of all bureaucracy possible.

URGES OLD POLICY

Norman H. Davis, American ambassador in London, has been called for the elimination from American diplomacy of a "strange figure known as the unofficial observer," a kind of international spy.

Davis, who has frequently been called "the unofficial observer" in his published accounts of his activities abroad, was asked for his reaction to the senator's denunciation of such emissaries.

"I don't think we've had any such thing," he said.

"I don't think we've had any such thing," he said.

"I don't think we've had any such thing," he said.

JURY WILL VISIT COAST GUARD MURDER SCENE

The jury, which is to try John T. Daly, 20, of Quincy, indicted in the slaying of Harry "Pop" Riddell, Atlantic baker, in November, 1932, will be taken to Quincy to view the scene of the alleged crime today.

Judge Nelson P. Brown, who is sitting on the case, asked the defendant yesterday if he wished to accompany the jury on the trip. The defendant, however, waived his rights. Judge Nelson ordered the jury locked up when smartly adjourned for the day.

The panel is made up of the following: William J. Zook, Milton, foreman; Benjamin Riddell, Franklin, Lyman, Foreman, Plainville; Abraham B. Kagan, Brookline; Hyman G. Webber, Brookline; Joseph W. Keeney, Dedham; Howard Mendelsohn, Braintree; Walter Woodward, Randolph; Ralph A. Marden, Milton; Joseph L. Fortier, Quincy, and George A. Jamison, Wrentham.

COAST GUARD MERGER READY

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The joint report of a conference on the proposed merger of the service has been forwarded to Secretary Morgenthau of the Treasury by Acting Secretary Henry L. Roosevelt of the navy and will be presented to President Roosevelt shortly.

The report was sent the Treasury for such comment as he desired to append to it.

The general plan would be to establish the coast guard as a corps in the navy similar to the marine corps. Changes would include the merger of the coast guard school at New London, Ct., into a naval post graduate school with consequent elimination of the post graduate school at Annapolis, Md., and the making available of naval officer personnel from the graduating class at Annapolis for coast guard duty, and merger of the communications systems of the two services.

MISS GIBBONS OF NORWICH, STATE AUDITOR FRANCIS X. HURLEY, DENIED ENGAGEMENT TODAY TO WED THE AUDITOR.

Miss Lucille Gibbons of Norwich, State Auditor Francis X. Hurley's attractive secretary, who denied her engagement today to wed the auditor. An announcement of the engagement had been made in a morning paper. Both Miss Gibbons and Hurley were furious.

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

GLCHRIST'S CASH and CARRY BASEMENT

79 Anniversary

Another Triumph For the Cash and Carry Basement

WEDNESDAY at the Stroke of 9

2,000 Pairs SHOES

Seconds from Large New England Maker

Discontinued Styles from large Chain Store

Black Leather Oxfords; Even Galskins, Some Boots

Let 1—From Large Chain Store Originally priced at $2 and $4. Goodyear welts. Leather soles. All tan, and broken sizes.

Let 2—Maker's Seconds Made for large mail order houses and jobbers. Catalog position soles. Mostly black

Prices 6 to 11 in lot

COURT SHAKUP ORDERED

Premier Chateaus accepted Dailier's resignation and ordered a shakedown in the police system and the criminal courts which Slawsky was able to dodge for years. Dailier, protesting his innocence of charges that he "approved" Slawsky's forged Bayonne passbooks, had been under fire for days.

Slawsky, who lived like a monarch, lived like a monarch. He was virtually a law unto himself in the postoffice department building.

The first witness of the day, James A. Duran, a postoffice inspector, testified that a search of postoffice department files disclosed official correspondence between Slawsky and General Brown was missing.

Charges that Brown arranged "mysterious" money from which the smaller air line operators were excluded, while a "new air line map of the country was being drawn," were made by the next witness, Thomas H. McKee, former official of the now defunct Air Service Corp. of New Orleans.

GOY ALL THE "GRAY"

McKee said he was virtually thrown out of one of the meetings after he "crashed" in. After a series of efforts to be heard, McKee began writing letters to Brown. He said this resulted in Brown terming the letters "insulting" and demanding "an oral apology" to McKee.

McKee testified the mail contracts were "swiped up" by Brown's office, during the 40 days following passage of the McNary-Walsh bill, which gave the Congress in 1930. He said he found W. A. McCracken, former Assistant Secretary of Commerce, was charged with acting as executive chairman at the meetings.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

WEDNESDAY at the Stroke of 9

2,000 Pairs SHOES

Seconds from Large New England Maker

Discontinued Styles from large Chain Store

Black Leather Oxfords; Even Galskins, Some Boots

Let 1—From Large Chain Store Originally priced at $2 and $4. Goodyear welts. Leather soles. All tan, and broken sizes.

Let 2—Maker's Seconds Made for large mail order houses and jobbers. Catalog position soles. Mostly black

Prices 6 to 11 in lot

Mrs. Culbertson in Lead at U. S. Bridge Tourney

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—The field for the pair championship of the U. S. Bridge Association was narrowed to 28 teams when the last score was tabulated this morning.

Mrs. Ely Culbertson and Albert H. Morehead, leading at the halfway mark, maintained their advantage and finished with a score of 140.5, well above the next pair, Michael L. Gottlieb and Howard E. S. Hokenbury of New York, with 129.5.

In order came E. D. Lent, Jr., and E. M. Rothman of New York, with 112.5; Ely Culbertson and Albert H. Morehead, with 109.5; and W. W. Brown and C. C. Theodor of St. Louis, with 108.5.

Others to qualify were James Hetty and William Stuteman of Portland, Ore., with 107.5.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

WEDNESDAY at the Stroke of 9

2,000 Pairs SHOES

Seconds from Large New England Maker

Discontinued Styles from large Chain Store

Black Leather Oxfords; Even Galskins, Some Boots

Let 1—From Large Chain Store Originally priced at $2 and $4. Goodyear welts. Leather soles. All tan, and broken sizes.

Let 2—Maker's Seconds Made for large mail order houses and jobbers. Catalog position soles. Mostly black

Prices 6 to 11 in lot

Mrs. Culbertson in Lead at U. S. Bridge Tourney

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—The field for the pair championship of the U. S. Bridge Association was narrowed to 28 teams when the last score was tabulated this morning.

Mrs. Ely Culbertson and Albert H. Morehead, leading at the halfway mark, maintained their advantage and finished with a score of 140.5, well above the next pair, Michael L. Gottlieb and Howard E. S. Hokenbury of New York, with 129.5.

In order came E. D. Lent, Jr., and E. M. Rothman of New York, with 112.5; Ely Culbertson and Albert H. Morehead, with 109.5; and W. W. Brown and C. C. Theodor of St. Louis, with 108.5.

Others to qualify were James Hetty and William Stuteman of Portland, Ore., with 107.5.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

WEDDING, GIRL BELIEVED TO PITH

The happy and blushing couple usually greet a printed rumor of secret betrothal were absent today from the office of State Auditor Francis X. Hurley.

And State House correspondents were left wondering whether, as a morning paper stated, Auditor Hurley is engaged to his slight, blonde and attractive secretary, Miss Lucille Gibbons.

Miss Gibbons was angry and Hurley was equally perturbed.

Miss Gibbons didn't blush and her eyes flashed anger.

"We are furious and all burned up and I won't say any more about it," she said, figuratively stamping her foot.

"I don't know what you are doing," she said, "ringing upon my engagement finger."

Auditor Hurley, snapping out of his wrath, denied the reported engagement. And Hurley's father, Capt. Patrick J. Hurley of the Cambridge police, said he didn't know his son was engaged.

Miss Gibbons is the daughter of Guy L. Gibbons. Her home is in Norwich.

She is 28, a native of Granville, and attended the Kharine Girls' School in Boston.

Auditor Hurley is a member of the bar before his election to the 1930 practice in Martha's Vineyard. He is a graduate of Harvard College in 1924 and Harvard Law School in 1926, where he was a brilliant student, being elected to the Phi Beta Kappa.

HOPES OF AGE-ANCY COUPLE FAIL AS LOAN PLAN FAILS

COURT TO HEAR EVICTION CASE TOMORROW

Refusal of Bank to Take Up U. S. Home Bonds Crushes Pratts

By JOHN T. LAMBERT
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pratt will be evicted from their home in Atlantic, North Quincy, tomorrow.

To them it will be a new experience.

Mr. Pratt has waited 76 years for it. Mrs. Pratt has just turned 70.

Folk who know them hope the weather will be pleasant.

VICTIM OF STROKE

Mr. Pratt is a big man, physically. And it has been hard for him to move, or be moved, lately.

His left side has been paralyzed by a heart stroke.

The Pratts are well known hereabouts, even if their distress is not.

Mr. Pratt went to work on the Newton Journal 64 years ago as printer's devil.

That was in the day when the young man around the newspaper learned it all. He swept the floors, washed the type, wrote bills, set type, solicited ads.

The records say he was a busy, industrious young fellow. At the age of 21 he bought and owned the paper. Eliza Ann Robbins worked his side for 20 years there. She is Mrs. Pratt.

Mr. Pratt made money, and he gave it away generously to those in need. "Here's a loan for you, young fellow. I hope you'll use it in business. Pay it back to me, when and if you can. But don't use it to buy anything I give it to you. This is between you and me."

Hard times hit the small-town newspapers a terrific blow, from which many have never recovered. Advertising slackened and circulation dropped on the Newton Journal as on others. Collections from readers became increasingly difficult.

Mr. Pratt saw the institution fold up to which he had given his life's interest and ability for 64 years.

HOME IN ATLANTIC

About seven years ago Mr. Pratt had bought a comfortable cottage in Atlantic, in which he and Mrs. Pratt resided themselves for their remaining years. It was a modest affair. He paid about $700 for it, of which $470 was on a first mortgage obtained by him from the Boston Cooperative Bank.

Mr. Pratt reduced the mortgage to about $300, even during the years when business troubles beset his newspaper property. Hard times got increasingly hard, like flint, however, or a banker's hand, he lapsed the payment of interest and taxes.

ORDER HALTED TWICE

Mr. Pratt does not know those matters, which affect his comfort, convenience and possibly his health. Fearing the effects, in his enfeebled condition, they dare not tell him.

Charles A. Robbins, a stepson, however, had essayed to keep the newspaper plant going and the roof continued on Page 6, Column 3

Met Boy Starts Cry of Unclad Cult

"Quick. Someone has started a nudist camp in the Pleasant st. railway station and is running around with no clothes on."

These words, shouted over the telephone, broke up a checker game in the Winthrop police station and the officers piled into a police car and rushed to the Narrow-Gauge railway depot.

Arriving there they found a 13-year-old boy from East Boston, who, after falling into a little inlet near the station, was attempting to dry himself at the station fire. When his clothes dried the lad was sent home.

Dorothy Mackaill and Husband Part

Film Star Slips Away on Visit After Separation

By LUCILLA G. FARNSON
Motion Picture Editor Universal Service

Hollywood, Jan. 8.—The romantic marriage of Dorothy Mackaill, blonde screen actress, and good-looking Neil Miller, non-professional, has ended in a separation, with a divorce to follow.

Neither Dorothy nor Neil were willing to give any reason for the unexpected severing of their domestic ties other than to mention that very non-committal and popular divorce word "incompatibility."

Miss Mackaill is out of town visiting friends, while her husband is preparing to vacate their apartment and move elsewhere. Friends of both had hoped that the disagreement was only temporary and that there might be a reconciliation.

But Miss Mackaill declares this separation is final and that she expects to devote herself exclusively

Paralyzed, He Faces Ouster

GEORGE H. PRATT

A savings of a lifetime may be lost if a court order evicts Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pratt from their North Quincy home. Both are over 70 and Mr. Pratt crippled as the result of a paralytic stroke. The Boston Co-operative Bank refused to accept Home Loan bonds to aid them in financing their home. The bank's attorney tomorrow will seek an eviction order. (Boston American photo.)

Other Pictures on Page 6

PRISON FACTS CHURCH SUPPLY GIVEN ELY SELER DIES

For more than half an hour today Gov. Ely conferred with his Auditor Francis X. Hurley, Commissioner of Corrections Frederick J. Dillon and State Comptroller George C. Murphy on the investigation into prison conditions and management.

Following the conference, State Auditor Hurley said he expects to complete the investigation into conduct of the State Prison, the Norfolk Prison Colony and the State Farm at Bridgewater within two weeks.

Hurley said he had discussed with the Governor the advisability of having the Governor send a special message to the Legislature with a view to giving the state auditor authority to summon witnesses, books and papers in the probe.

GRAYSON FATE UNSETTLED

Rochester, Minn., Jan. 9.—Dr. E. Starr Jude of the Mayo clinic, who operated on Adm. Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., for kidney tumor is reluctant to discuss the admiral's condition, asserting "it is a little too early to make any positive statement."

Admiral Grayson, who was personal physician to President Woodrow Wilson, was accompanied here by Mrs. Grayson and Bernard M. Baruch, New York.

POSSE HUNTING MISSING BOY

A posse of citizens today joined Brookline police in a renewed hunt for John Collins, 11, son of John P. Collins, of 215 Cypress st., Brookline, who has been missing from his home since Saturday night.

The citizens and the police were concentrating their efforts today in a search of collars and woodlands in the Brookline Hills and Chestnut Hill sections of the town.

Miller to Vacate Hollywood Home; Divorce to Follow

to motion pictures in the future. Dorothy and Neil were married in Arizona in 1931. It was Dorothy's second marriage, she having been the wife of Lothar Mendes, German director, for a brief period.

Peeping Quarry Pain in Neck

New London, Conn., Jan. 9.—In there any justice or sin? the townsmen Lawrence Farley, who was seriously demanding to know, on Thursday night he was sent to the campus of the Connecticut College for Girls to investigate complaints of a Peeping Tom.

After looking about Farley rested himself by leaning against a tree. The Peeping Tom fell out of the tree, landing on the officer and got away. Farley was taken home and is still confined to bed, and the top of that he has been given 17 hours punishment duty.

Grayson Fate Unsettled

Rochester, Minn., Jan. 9.—Dr. E. Starr Jude of the Mayo clinic, who operated on Adm. Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., for kidney tumor is reluctant to discuss the admiral's condition, asserting "it is a little too early to make any positive statement."

Admiral Grayson, who was personal physician to President Woodrow Wilson, was accompanied here by Mrs. Grayson and Bernard M. Baruch, New York.

Posse Hunting Missing Boy

A posse of citizens today joined Brookline police in a renewed hunt for John Collins, 11, son of John P. Collins, of 215 Cypress st., Brookline, who has been missing from his home since Saturday night.

The citizens and the police were concentrating their efforts today in a search of collars and woodlands in the Brookline Hills and Chestnut Hill sections of the town.

Miller to Vacate Hollywood Home; Divorce to Follow

to motion pictures in the future. Dorothy and Neil were married in Arizona in 1931. It was Dorothy's second marriage, she having been the wife of Lothar Mendes, German director, for a brief period.

Peeping Quarry Pain in Neck

New London, Conn., Jan. 9.—In there any justice or sin? the townsmen Lawrence Farley, who was seriously demanding to know, on Thursday night he was sent to the campus of the Connecticut College for Girls to investigate complaints of a Peeping Tom.

After looking about Farley rested himself by leaning against a tree. The Peeping Tom fell out of the tree, landing on the officer and got away. Farley was taken home and is still confined to bed, and the top of that he has been given 17 hours punishment duty.

Grayson Fate Unsettled

Rochester, Minn., Jan. 9.—Dr. E. Starr Jude of the Mayo clinic, who operated on Adm. Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., for kidney tumor is reluctant to discuss the admiral's condition, asserting "it is a little too early to make any positive statement."

Admiral Grayson, who was personal physician to President Woodrow Wilson, was accompanied here by Mrs. Grayson and Bernard M. Baruch, New York.

Posse Hunting Missing Boy

A posse of citizens today joined Brookline police in a renewed hunt for John Collins, 11, son of John P. Collins, of 215 Cypress st., Brookline, who has been missing from his home since Saturday night.

The citizens and the police were concentrating their efforts today in a search of collars and woodlands in the Brookline Hills and Chestnut Hill sections of the town.

Miller to Vacate Hollywood Home; Divorce to Follow

to motion pictures in the future. Dorothy and Neil were married in Arizona in 1931. It was Dorothy's second marriage, she having been the wife of Lothar Mendes, German director, for a brief period.

Peeping Quarry Pain in Neck

New London, Conn., Jan. 9.—In there any justice or sin? the townsmen Lawrence Farley, who was seriously demanding to know, on Thursday night he was sent to the campus of the Connecticut College for Girls to investigate complaints of a Peeping Tom.

After looking about Farley rested himself by leaning against a tree. The Peeping Tom fell out of the tree, landing on the officer and got away. Farley was taken home and is still confined to bed, and the top of that he has been given 17 hours punishment duty.

Grayson Fate Unsettled

Rochester, Minn., Jan. 9.—Dr. E. Starr Jude of the Mayo clinic, who operated on Adm. Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., for kidney tumor is reluctant to discuss the admiral's condition, asserting "it is a little too early to make any positive statement."

Admiral Grayson, who was personal physician to President Woodrow Wilson, was accompanied here by Mrs. Grayson and Bernard M. Baruch, New York.

Posse Hunting Missing Boy

A posse of citizens today joined Brookline police in a renewed hunt for John Collins, 11, son of John P. Collins, of 215 Cypress st., Brookline, who has been missing from his home since Saturday night.

The citizens and the police were concentrating their efforts today in a search of collars and woodlands in the Brookline Hills and Chestnut Hill sections of the town.

Miller to Vacate Hollywood Home; Divorce to Follow

to motion pictures in the future. Dorothy and Neil were married in Arizona in 1931. It was Dorothy's second marriage, she having been the wife of Lothar Mendes, German director, for a brief period.

Peeping Quarry Pain in Neck

New London, Conn., Jan. 9.—In there any justice or sin? the townsmen Lawrence Farley, who was seriously demanding to know, on Thursday night he was sent to the campus of the Connecticut College for Girls to investigate complaints of a Peeping Tom.

After looking about Farley rested himself by leaning against a tree. The Peeping Tom fell out of the tree, landing on the officer and got away. Farley was taken home and is still confined to bed, and the top of that he has been given 17 hours punishment duty.

Grayson Fate Unsettled

Rochester, Minn., Jan. 9.—Dr. E. Starr Jude of the Mayo clinic, who operated on Adm. Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., for kidney tumor is reluctant to discuss the admiral's condition, asserting "it is a little too early to make any positive statement."

Admiral Grayson, who was personal physician to President Woodrow Wilson, was accompanied here by Mrs. Grayson and Bernard M. Baruch, New York.

Posse Hunting Missing Boy

A posse of citizens today joined Brookline police in a renewed hunt for John Collins, 11, son of John P. Collins, of 215 Cypress st., Brookline, who has been missing from his home since Saturday night.

The citizens and the police were concentrating their efforts today in a search of collars and woodlands in the Brookline Hills and Chestnut Hill sections of the town.

Miller to Vacate Hollywood Home; Divorce to Follow

to motion pictures in the future. Dorothy and Neil were married in Arizona in 1931. It was Dorothy's second marriage, she having been the wife of Lothar Mendes, German director, for a brief period.

Peeping Quarry Pain in Neck

New London, Conn., Jan. 9.—In there any justice or sin? the townsmen Lawrence Farley, who was seriously demanding to know, on Thursday night he was sent to the campus of the Connecticut College for Girls to investigate complaints of a Peeping Tom.

After looking about Farley rested himself by leaning against a tree. The Peeping Tom fell out of the tree, landing on the officer and got away. Farley was taken home and is still confined to bed, and the top of that he has been given 17 hours punishment duty.

Grayson Fate Unsettled

Rochester, Minn., Jan. 9.—Dr. E. Starr Jude of the Mayo clinic, who operated on Adm. Cary T. Grayson of Washington, D. C., for kidney tumor is reluctant to discuss the admiral's condition, asserting "it is a little too early to make any positive statement."

Admiral Grayson, who was personal physician to President Woodrow Wilson, was accompanied here by Mrs. Grayson and Bernard M. Baruch, New York.

KING CAROL IN PHIBBIN FIGHTS NEW MOVE TO ATLAS TACK ARREST

Sends Younger Brother to Intercede With Princess Helen

London, Jan. 9 (INS)—A Vienna dispatch to the Daily Express today reported King Carol of Rumania had decided to seek a reconciliation with Princess Helen, his estranged wife who is now living in Florence, Italy.

According to the Express, the step is being taken to end frequent demonstrations by the anti-Semitic "Iron Guard" against Mrs. Magda Lupescu, Carol's beautiful Jewish sweetheart.

The paper reported Carol had sent his younger brother, Prince Nicholas, to Florence to visit Helen and discuss a reconciliation.

Shirkers Face CWA Ouster in Brockton

Brockton, Jan. 9.—Declaring his remarks were aimed at professional shirkers, Walter F. Hall, manager of the Federal re-employment agency, today warned CWA workers they must put in a full day or get off the job.

Hall explained that the majority of men were willing to do their share of work, but that a certain percentage were openly shirking, despite their perfect physical condition.

McCall in charge of the probe, detailed the events leading to Philip H. Phibbin, Jr., California promoter, who made a $600,000 fortune in the stock, appeared before Magistrate Louis B. Brodsky in Tomba court.

Deputy Atty-Gen Ambrose V. McCall in charge of the probe, detailed the events leading to Philip H. Phibbin, Jr., California promoter, who made a $600,000 fortune in the stock, appeared before Magistrate Louis B. Brodsky in Tomba court.

McCall gave Magistrate Brodsky an outline of the testimony at the public hearings and told of the 16 checks, amounting to $400,000, which Phibbin failed to account for.

This was countered by Paul McConkey, Phibbin's lawyer, who repeated the plan for more time which Phibbin had made before his arrest.

McConkey declared Phibbin had dealt in huge quantities of Atlas Tack stock with tremendous sums involved. He declared the Californian could not recall the checks unless he had a chance to examine his records, which were in McCall's possession.

Sister Eyed Hubby, Wife Is Peeved

When a lady finds her sister and her own husband in a very compromising situation the lady is apt to order the sister from the house and is further apt to harbor a grievance against the sister.

And that was just the situation when Mrs. Helen M. Pike found her doctor husband with sister Gertrude Perkins, it was testified in Norfolk Probate Court today.

This testimony was given by Atty. William H. Lewis in the fight through which Miss Perkins seeks to break the will of Mrs. Pike, leaving $35,000 to a Boston numerologist, and to sister, nothing.

The master of the house, Mrs. Pike, then took the stand and told Judge McCool she had been a practicing numerologist for 15 years.

She said she had been able to give advice on love, business and other such things, and Mrs. Pike was one of her clients.

True, said Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Pike had given her money to pay the rent, but not true that she had ever asked Mrs. Pike for a thousand dollars. Nor was it true that she predicted the demise of the doctor husband, said the madame.

The will contest, which has been going on for several months, was in its last stage today. Judge McCool will take it under advisement.

Parkway Work Daily Jury Sees

Construction of the Lynn-Pole highway extension from the Newburyport turnpike in Saugus, to Walnut st. was begun this morning by the Metropolitan District Commission as a CWA project.

Only the foundations and subgrading for the extension will be done by the CWA workers. The top coat will be applied by contract labor.

The new roadway will give a direct route to the Lynn Woods reservation and will also provide a direct route to Lynn from points west of that city.

Jurors heard the first testimony today in the trial of John T. Daley, 25, Atlantic youth, charged with murder of Harry "Pop" Riddell, baker, on Hallowell street, 1922.

The jury, impaneled yesterday, morning at 88 Sagamore st., Atlantic, at noon said Atty. George Archuleta opened the government's case in Superior Court at Dedham.

George H. Newcomb, Quincy city engineer, identified two plans, one of Riddell's bakery, the other of surrounding territory. These plans, drawn by Newcomb, will be used in the trial.

Professor of Williams' Widow Succumbs

Williamstown, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Mary Warren Wahl, widow of Dr. George Williams, who was a member of Williams College faculty from 1892 until his death in 1924, is dead at her home here.

FOSS DAUGHTER TAKES POLO STAR AS NO. 3

Mrs. Moore Married to Adrian Roark in California

Mrs. Esther Ross Moore, former Boston social woman and now a resident of Pebble Beach, Cal., yesterday became the bride of Adrian Roark, Hollywood polo player, according to California dispatches received here today.

The ceremony took place at the Sidney Fish ranch in Carmel Valley and was witnessed by a small number of friends of the couple. They plan to make their home at Pebble Beach.

Mrs. Roark, who is 39, is one of the twin daughters of former Gov. Eugene N. Foss of Massachusetts. She divorced her first husband, Albert Hiceman, of Canada, 15 years ago and last year went to Reno where she obtained a divorce from George Gordon Moore on grounds of non-support.

Death Scene

Jurors heard the first testimony today in the trial of John T. Daley, 25, Atlantic youth, charged with murder of Harry "Pop" Riddell, baker, on Hallowell street, 1922.

The jury, impaneled yesterday, morning at 88 Sagamore st., Atlantic, at noon said Atty. George Archuleta opened the government's case in Superior Court at Dedham.

George H. Newcomb, Quincy city engineer, identified two plans, one of Riddell's bakery, the other of surrounding territory. These plans, drawn by Newcomb, will be used in the trial.

Professor of Williams' Widow Succumbs

Williamstown, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Mary Warren Wahl, widow of Dr. George Williams, who was a member of Williams College faculty from 1892 until his death in 1924, is dead at her home here.

Death Scene

Jurors heard the first testimony today in the trial of John T. Daley, 25, Atlantic youth, charged with murder of Harry "Pop" Riddell, baker, on Hallowell street, 1922.

The jury, impaneled yesterday, morning at 88 Sagamore st., Atlantic, at noon said Atty. George Archuleta opened the government's case in Superior Court at Dedham.

George H. Newcomb, Quincy city engineer, identified two plans, one of Riddell's bakery, the other of surrounding territory. These plans, drawn by Newcomb, will be used in the trial.

Professor of Williams' Widow Succumbs

Williamstown, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Mary Warren Wahl, widow of Dr. George Williams, who was a member of Williams College faculty from 1892 until his death in 1924, is dead at her home here.

Latest

Atwater Kent

CONSOLE RADIO

First time at only $49.90 WITH TUBES

It's the biggest Atwater Kent news in a long time! Never before has there been an Atwater Kent console model at so low a price as this. It's a superheterodyne, a circuit of new design, with tone control, volume control and dynamic speaker. Acoustically designed cabinet. Every part used in an Atwater Kent radio is carefully tested many times. Every set is given an exacting trial before it leaves the factory. It's a radio that you can confidently choose for the enjoyment of excellent radio reception.

$5 INITIAL PAYMENT

Inquire about Jordan Marsh Company's convenient budget payment plan

Mail or phone orders filled—HUBbard 2700

RADIOS—STREET FLOOR—ANNE

DOROTHY MACKAILL

NEIL MILLER

U. S. ATTACKS WELFARE AID IN STATE

Welfare and relief administration in cities and towns throughout the State was today severely criticized by the federal government as the result of a census it has just completed.

Resisting to charge outright fraud and embezzlement, the government, however, declared that bookkeeping methods were so lax and antiquated in a number of communities that there was no relation at all between the facts and records of expenditures and number of cases aided.

The report was submitted to John T. Scully, director of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, by Richard A. Nagle, Massachusetts director of census.

In view of the fact that more than 300 cities and towns are spending $2,000,000 a month for welfare purposes, a much stricter system of accounting is needed, Nagle said. He suggested the formation of a three-man board similar to the state bank examiners, to survey the work.

"Financial reports containing the number of both welfare and soldier cases, sent monthly by the cities and towns, have been made very inaccurate—and for just one month—but continuously," Nagle said.

Boston has 13,415 family cases and 872 cases of single persons, making a total of 13,001 who are being helped.

There were 28 cities and towns that reported not a single welfare case. All figures are for October.

Quincy Hunts Killer of 5 --All Pets

Up in arms over the apparent launching of a wholesale animal poison plot which had already accounted for five valuable cats and dogs, residents of the Montclair district today asked the Quincy police to search for the poisoners.

Because of the nature of the poison used, veterinarians told the dog and cat owners it was practically impossible to save the animals once they were stricken.

Among those who have lost pets by poison are Walter Sargent, 90 Wilson ave.; Mrs. David O. Miller, of 122 Bedford st.; and Mrs. Robert Scott of Wilson ave.

NEW SCALE WINS PHONE GIRLS

As partial compensation, members of the Metropolitan Boston Local No. 1-A, United Telephone Workers of America, today won a new scale of pay increases.

The action was taken at a meeting in Loring Hall, Tremont Temple, at which Miss Grace Barry, president of the local, announced that since automatic increases were stopped in 1932, the reestablishment in 1934 was considered by the operators as only bringing up arrears.

TAXI MEN SEEK NEW POLICIES

The elusive individual known as H. A. Burns was still the object of State police search today as clerks at the Registry of Motor Vehicles checked the registration of more than 1000 vehicles in the State to determine how many had been swindled in his auto insurance fraud.

Meanwhile, cheated taxicab drivers were appearing at the Registry office in response to instructions from Registrar Morgan T. Ryan that they must have new insurance by today.

At the closing hours at the Registry last night attaches stated that thus far only 11 taxicab owners had appeared and found that their policies were among those fraudulently placed by Burns. Four of the number immediately reregistered their cars with legitimate companies.

Boy Bandit Resumes Medford Theft

After the lapse of a week in which he remained in the background, Medford's boy bandit broke into print again late yesterday when he took $450 from a little girl who had gone to the store and made a 40 cent purchase, receiving the change from a $5 bill. The bandit is described as about 14 years old.

His plan was similar to that followed in his many other child victims. He approached the children, informed them that the grocery had made a mistake and wanted the change back, then the money was turned over to the boy to take back, he ran away. Police in plain clothes have been unable to apprehend him.

'Elo' Chosen Squash Leader

Miss Eleanor Sears of Boston, noted all-around sportswoman, has advanced to the third round of the national women's squash racquets championship being held in New York. Miss Sears has been chosen captain of the American women's squash racquets team that will go to England soon to meet the British women's team in the Wolf-Not trophy matches. (International News Photos.) (Story on Sports Page.)

CWA Director Swings into Action in Padding Cases

With the first direct evidence at hand of padded CWA payrolls in Boston, John J. Power, Massachusetts CWA director, today swung into action against grafters under the system.

The most startling evidence was that a timekeeper in charge of a crew engaged in painting a local police station, had accepted $6 a week from a common laborer, entered upon the payroll as a painter at $15 an hour.

A woman charged that a prominent Somerville official had demanded "yes." Three witnesses in this case were named. Three men who had been asked for money declined the request.

REDFORD CHARGES

Another case reported was that of a Redford politician with four members of his family in the payroll at $15 an hour. All four were dropped today.

Director Power announced today that he proposed to investigate all jobs paid $10 an hour.

"I intend to cut all such cases down to at least $12 an hour—quite possibly lower should investigation justify such a course. It is hard for me to see just why any one should be receiving $15.00 an hour."

WALTER MURRAY GETS ROAD JOB

Walter A. Murray, Brighton attorney, was today appointed a member of the street commission by Mayor Joseph P. McKim.

He succeeds Charles P. Hogan, who resigned to return to his former position as conveyancer on the civil service rolls of the department.

Murray will receive a salary of $6,000 annually, while Hogan's new wage scale will be $5,000.

On the heels of the mayor's action came gossip that he will soon appoint John C. L. Dowling, former president of the Boston and Ward Society, as successor to Theodore A. Glynn, present chairman of the street commission, and that Edmund Giblin of Jamaica Plain will be appointed successor to Commr. John J. O'Callahan, who is scheduled to retire after 30 years of service.

Murray resides at 242 Foster st., Brighton, is a graduate of both Harvard College and law school. He had a law office in Mayor Mansfield's suite, 18 Tremont st. Prior to entering law practice was an assistant clerk of Suffolk Superior court. He is a brother of Atty. Francis J. Murray who for many years has been a close friend of the Mayor.

Woman Sheriff to Seek Re-election

Le Center, Minn., Jan. 9 (AP)—Minnesota's first woman sheriff, who has held office 18 months, likes her job so well she has filed for re-election.

She is Mrs. Kate Bolke of Le Sueur County. Elected to office after the death of her husband, Sheriff Hugo Bolke, she has been regarded as an efficient official.

When things got off and the only woman sheriff in the state. When filing for the office was opened, she was the first to register.

Refuse $800,000 for McCormick Gems

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—Two necklaces that cost the late Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick approximately $2,000,000 were still the property of her estate today after Probate Judge John P. O'Connell refused an $800,000 offer for their purchase, as being inimical to the interests of the estate.

One of the necklaces is composed of 33 pearls, 100 round diamonds and 12 square cut diamonds. The other is of platinum gold with five emeralds and 755 diamonds.

RABBIT FLEES FENS BOUQUIN

A bonfire handit gained entry to the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Myhrhall in the Riverway early today and snatched with jewelry and money, having a total value of $228. After Myhrhall, aroused from sleep, failed to overtake him in a chase through hallways of the block.

Myhrhall told police of the Riverway Crossing station that he and his wife were awakened by the slamming of a door shortly after 1:30 a. m.

He said he was still half asleep when he was gawgled into action by the sight of a man pawing over the contents of a bureau drawer in the bedroom.

He leaped from the bed as his wife screamed in hysteria. The bandit turned and fled through the apartment with Myhrhall in pursuit. As the bandit fled down the hallway, Myhrhall returned to his apartment and telephoned police.

The investigation of charges that Chelsea CWA workers, who testified for Rep. William H. Malley, his attempt to have the re-election of Leverett F. Quigley voided, were discharged immediately after the hearing, was asked today by 28 workers.

The investigation request was contained in a petition to Joseph W. Bartlett, CWA administrator, at the direction of Mr. Malley. Chelsea, a business man.

According to the charges, the CWA workers, witnesses for Malley, were dropped from CWA rolls by Alton E. Briggs, Chelsea's federal administrator, after Quigley had made a successful appeal in superior court against the Melley petition.

Farrell alleged that Briggs dropped the anti-Quigley CWA workers at the direction of Mayor Quigley, and further alleged that 42 others who applied for CWA posts never have been appointed, because they were dropped from the rolls in the November election.

File on Roosevelt Ball Committee

Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, is on the national committee in charge of the nation-wide Birthday ball for President Roosevelt, to be given in 500 cities and towns throughout the United States on January 30.

The purpose is to establish an endowment fund for the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation, created in 1926 by President Roosevelt.

United States Marshal John J. Murphy has been designated general chairman for Somerville. He has engaged the high school gymnasium in Somerville to receive President Roosevelt's speech the night of the ball.

Another Given Her 3 Children

Barnstable, Jan. 9—Cape Cod's strange custody case, wherein a nurse for three children opposed their mother in guardianship proceedings, ended in a victory today for the mother, Mrs. Anna V. Dignan of New York and Provincetown.

Mrs. Laura Knowles of Provincetown, estranged wife of Howard Knowles, in state midget, and with whom the children have been living for six years, withdrew her petition for guardianship.

In a letter stating that she loved the children, but that Mrs. Dignan was a good mother, she wrote that the petition had been inspired by Mrs. Susan Turner of Hyannis, agent for the Massachusetts Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Called for by Mrs. Dignan, declared the petition was a scheme of the M. P. S. C. C. and the board of child welfare of Westchester County, N. Y. to deprive Mrs. Dignan of a widow's allowance in New York.

Mrs. Dignan is the widow of a one-time wealthy New York business man, Mrs. Knowles was a nurse in her household eight years ago. Whether the latter will consent to have the care of the three children at Provincetown was not announced.

THE JOB GOES TO BOSTONIAN

The appointment of Francis J. O'Brien of Boston as chief inspector of the materials division of the Tennessee Valley Authority was announced today in Knoxville, Tenn., today by C. H. Gartry, director of purchases, according to word received here.

The announcement indicated that Mr. O'Brien had been associated with the Boston engineering firm of Bion & Webster, however, the firm had no record of the name in its Federal file.

Two Frank J. O'Brien left its service in 1928. One was an outside instrument man, the other was a draftsman.

WORK MORE, EARN MORE, SPEND MORE IN 1934

EXAMPLES OF CLOTH COAT SAVINGS glorified with Scott Fur! Caracul - Squirrel - Wolf Blue-dyed Fox-Kit Fox Beaver-dyed Coney Opussum originally $47.95-$59.75

AND best of all—you may enjoy the exclusive advantages of the Scott Unique Payment Club while you are wearing your Scott Coat.

ON THE RADIO Every Sunday WMAZ WEAN-10, P. M. Phil Harris and His Hollywood Orchestra with Leah Rae and the Three Ambassadors.

1934 will be a Scott Furriers Year

Singer Goes 'Without a Song!'

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 9 (INS)—John Charles Thomas, New York baritone, was en route to Los Angeles today as Dallas concert goers bolted over his refusal to sing last night.

Thomas remained in his hotel room while an audience milled restlessly about Fair Park Auditorium, awaiting his appearance. At 11 o'clock he and E. L. Jones, his personal representative, left the hotel and a half before they left, E. L. Council, representing the management of the concert series, advised the audience Thomas would not appear, as Mrs. Harriet Bacon MacDonald, local impresario, was unable to pay the contract fee of $1500 called for in the contract.

"For sportsmanship," was among the remarks which greeted the announcement.

Thomas explained he was "deeply pained" and continued:

"I am forced to require my fee. It is only on this basis that I can undertake my tour, which are expensive."

QUIGLEY HIT BY CWA PETITION

The investigation of charges that Chelsea CWA workers, who testified for Rep. William H. Malley, his attempt to have the re-election of Leverett F. Quigley voided, were discharged immediately after the hearing, was asked today by 28 workers.

The investigation request was contained in a petition to Joseph W. Bartlett, CWA administrator, at the direction of Mr. Malley. Chelsea, a business man.

According to the charges, the CWA workers, witnesses for Malley, were dropped from CWA rolls by Alton E. Briggs, Chelsea's federal administrator, after Quigley had made a successful appeal in superior court against the Melley petition.

Farrell alleged that Briggs dropped the anti-Quigley CWA workers at the direction of Mayor Quigley, and further alleged that 42 others who applied for CWA posts never have been appointed, because they were dropped from the rolls in the November election.

FILE ON ROOSEVELT BALL COMMITTEE

Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, is on the national committee in charge of the nation-wide Birthday ball for President Roosevelt, to be given in 500 cities and towns throughout the United States on January 30.

The purpose is to establish an endowment fund for the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation, created in 1926 by President Roosevelt.

United States Marshal John J. Murphy has been designated general chairman for Somerville. He has engaged the high school gymnasium in Somerville to receive President Roosevelt's speech the night of the ball.

ANOTHER GIVEN HER 3 CHILDREN

Barnstable, Jan. 9—Cape Cod's strange custody case, wherein a nurse for three children opposed their mother in guardianship proceedings, ended in a victory today for the mother, Mrs. Anna V. Dignan of New York and Provincetown.

Mrs. Laura Knowles of Provincetown, estranged wife of Howard Knowles, in state midget, and with whom the children have been living for six years, withdrew her petition for guardianship.

In a letter stating that she loved the children, but that Mrs. Dignan was a good mother, she wrote that the petition had been inspired by Mrs. Susan Turner of Hyannis, agent for the Massachusetts Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Called for by Mrs. Dignan, declared the petition was a scheme of the M. P. S. C. C. and the board of child welfare of Westchester County, N. Y. to deprive Mrs. Dignan of a widow's allowance in New York.

Mrs. Dignan is the widow of a one-time wealthy New York business man, Mrs. Knowles was a nurse in her household eight years ago. Whether the latter will consent to have the care of the three children at Provincetown was not announced.

THE JOB GOES TO BOSTONIAN

The appointment of Francis J. O'Brien of Boston as chief inspector of the materials division of the Tennessee Valley Authority was announced today in Knoxville, Tenn., today by C. H. Gartry, director of purchases, according to word received here.

The announcement indicated that Mr. O'Brien had been associated with the Boston engineering firm of Bion & Webster, however, the firm had no record of the name in its Federal file.

Two Frank J. O'Brien left its service in 1928. One was an outside instrument man, the other was a draftsman.

WORK MORE, EARN MORE, SPEND MORE IN 1934

EXAMPLES OF CLOTH COAT SAVINGS glorified with Scott Fur! Caracul - Squirrel - Wolf Blue-dyed Fox-Kit Fox Beaver-dyed Coney Opussum originally $47.95-$59.75

AND best of all—you may enjoy the exclusive advantages of the Scott Unique Payment Club while you are wearing your Scott Coat.

ON THE RADIO Every Sunday WMAZ WEAN-10, P. M. Phil Harris and His Hollywood Orchestra with Leah Rae and the Three Ambassadors.

1934 will be a Scott Furriers Year

MRS. CATT, 77, IN PEACE PLEA

New Rochelle, N. Y., Jan. 9 (INS)—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who led the fight that enfranchised 60,000,000 American women, said on her 77th birthday today that she intended to devote the rest of her life to world peace.

Mrs. Catt was guest of honor this afternoon at the Cosmopolitan Club in New York. Women laborers, wet and dry (she is a dry), Democrat and Republican (she is a Republican) unite in honoring her.

Speaking of war, Mrs. Catt said: "I do not feel that any nation can lay down its arms and say it will never fight again, but a nation can resist the use of its arms. I am a strong believer that war in this day is barbarism. It is certainly unnecessary and the world should be ashamed of itself for indulging in it."

LIVES TO BE 103, Voted for 30 Presidents

Londonderry, N. H., Jan. 9 (AP)—Joseph J. Day, believed to be one of the oldest Civil War veterans in the country, celebrated his 103rd birthday today.

Day has voted for 30 Presidents.

inspired fashion in our JANUARY Markdown SALE

Scott Cloth Coat SUCCESSES up to 1/2 off!

THE JOB GOES TO BOSTONIAN

The appointment of Francis J. O'Brien of Boston as chief inspector of the materials division of the Tennessee Valley Authority was announced today in Knoxville, Tenn., today by C. H. Gartry, director of purchases, according to word received here.

The announcement indicated that Mr. O'Brien had been associated with the Boston engineering firm of Bion & Webster, however, the firm had no record of the name in its Federal file.

Two Frank J. O'Brien left its service in 1928. One was an outside instrument man, the other was a draftsman.

WORK MORE, EARN MORE, SPEND MORE IN 1934

EXAMPLES OF CLOTH COAT SAVINGS glorified with Scott Fur! Caracul - Squirrel - Wolf Blue-dyed Fox-Kit Fox Beaver-dyed Coney Opussum originally $47.95-$59.75

AND best of all—you may enjoy the exclusive advantages of the Scott Unique Payment Club while you are wearing your Scott Coat.

ON THE RADIO Every Sunday WMAZ WEAN-10, P. M. Phil Harris and His Hollywood Orchestra with Leah Rae and the Three Ambassadors.

1934 will be a Scott Furriers Year

SCOTT'S

411 WASHINGTON ST. Next to Loew's Orpheum Theatre

"The Talk of the Town!"
Sears Extraordinary Selling ENTIRE STOCK OF BEAUTIFUL LIVING ROOM SUITES
From One of New England's Largest Furniture Manufacturers
AT A FRACTION OF THEIR REAL WORTH

It has been a long time since Sears has had the opportunity to present such a furniture buying opportunity as this! From present indications it may be many, many days before you will buy such fine living room suites as these for so little money as we name in this purchase and sale. Easy Terms If You Prefer. Make it a point to see these mohair—woven tapestry—rayon tapestry—fringe living room suites before investing your money elsewhere—Savings like these should not be ignored.

Three of the Amazing Low Prices

Regular $69.50 to $99.50	$5 DOWN
Two Piece Living Room Suites	$5 Monthly
Regular $98 to $119.00	$6 DOWN
Two and Three Piece Living Room Suites	$7 Monthly
Regular $139.00 to $209.00	$9 DOWN
Two and Three Piece Living Room Suites	$8 Monthly

BOSTON
Auburn Rd.—Brookline Ave.
CAMBRIDGE
1815 Mass. Ave.—Near Porter Sq.

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

WHY IS ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH PLUS THE QUICKEST STARTING MOTOR FUEL?

Ask the Goalie:

IF HE DROVE A CAR DURING THE RECORD-BREAKING COLD SPELL... HE KNOWS!

'ONE GOES UNDER HAMMER'

ONE Goes Under Hammer

Los Angeles, Jan. 9 (INS)—

Answering the sensational charges of Fay Webb's suit for separate maintenance with the woman that he would fight the matter through California courts, Rudy Valle, famous crooner, today laid the battle lines for a staling court tilt with his estranged dark-eyed wife.

"I will be very happy to classify the answers to certain paragraphs technically," he said. "I hope I never have to do this. I have no particular desire to blast the girl, but certainly I will have to defend myself and bring out the charges."

HER OWN VOICE

"I hope I do not have to do it but if I do, we will let Mrs. Valle's own voice speak for itself and her letters also."

"I don't want to hurt her, but she must stop asking for more money," he added firmly.

He had rushed from a movie set to accept service of papers in his wife's maintenance suit filed here.

"I sent for Mrs. Valle's father on the evening of April 1, 1933," he had good and definite reasons for this, I called him by long-distance telephone and he came East at my expense."

"When Mrs. Valle and her father entrusted for the West who was a very happy girl. She was going blind."

"For the past seven or eight months I had nothing to say, she, however, seemed to gain courage as she came West, and her statements to the press became more and more vitriolic."

"Then she brought two actions against me in New York—seeking to restrain me from getting a Mexican divorce, and the other seeking more money on the grounds that fraud and coercion had entered into the stay weekly agreement."

"For the first time I was forced to defend myself. She accused me of having lied to her about the money. There was no alternative but to defend myself. We filed a reply in New York. I had no personal desire to have the charges made public."

"I did not ask for a change of venue as I might not win here. I can get justice in New York," said Valle emphatically.

CHARGES ALICE FAY

Charging intimacy with Alice Fay, film actress, and "Jane Doe," Mrs. Valle, the daughter of the Santa Monica, Cal., chief of police, brought to a halt the New York court actions by the suit.

"Ridiculous," was the reply of Miss Fay to the charges.

"Any such charge as listed in the complaint filed against Mr. Valle today is ridiculous as will be proved when the matter is brought into court," she asserted.

Widener Library Hours Set

The Widener Library at Harvard will continue to close at 6 p. m. daily instead of 10 p. m. as requested by members of the history and government departments of the university.

TODAY

Continued From First Page

our foolishness in the big war.

It will interest publishers to know that the RFC, one government-lending agency, will lend money "to deserving publishers."

John A. Park, publisher of the Raleigh Times, will be president of the "Publishers Financial Corp." D. H. Ramsey, of the Nashville Times, will be vice-president. The theory is that newspapers are as much entitled to government financial aid as any other enterprise. That may be sound, although it may think it sounds like subsidizing the press. The government should know that it takes some experience to know what newspapers "in the red" are sure to turn "into the black" and repay loans.

Unless carefully watched, this generous thought of the government might encourage intelligent speculators to buy up moribund newspapers and try to build them up with government money. If successful, well and good; if not, the government will find itself in the newspaper business. And the government is the business for some time that it would not enjoy the job.

The life of the gangster is not pleasant.

Mrs. French, 25 years old, of Chicago, was suspected of "squealing" about other gangsters to a hi-jacking enterprise. They took him on a "one way ride," throw him out, called him "a rat." One knocked him down, the other shot him twice.

French staggered to the river bank, fell in purposefully, "played dead" in the shallow water, heard one man, Cusack, say, "Hell, he's dead, let's get going." The other man, McCarthy, who, according to French, did the slugging while Cusack did the shooting, stepped on the gun.

McCarthy was formerly business agent of the Trucking Drivers' Association and Cusack a suspended policeman. That adds interest.

Copyright, 1934, King Features Synd. Inc.

BONDS REFUSED ON THIS RESIDENCE

WAKEFIELD HOME OF BANK PRESIDENT

Because the Boston Co-operative Bank refuses to accept Home Loan bonds, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pratt face eviction from their $7000 home, 32 Bayfield rd., North Quincy. Here is the time residence occupied by Herbert F. Taylor, Jr., president of the bank, at 11 Morrison rd., Wakefield. (Boston American photo.)

NEW COMIC IS COUPLE AWAIT INSTANT HIT EVICTION

Continued From Page 3

It's the talk of the town, or perhaps we should say everybody's reading "Way Out West," new comic strip appearing daily in the Boston Evening American, with a full page in the Boston Sunday Advertiser, and a full page in the New York Evening Post.

Young and Julie have started reading "Way Out West" and favorable comments are being heaped upon the Boston Evening American and Boston Sunday Advertiser for buying this feature and upon Vir Forsythe, the artist.

James J. Goobar, or just "Jim," is the hero. He hears of a gold strike in a gulch on the edge of the Mojave Desert, where his father lives. Jimmy, chuck full of human frailties, gives up everything and flies west to help his father dig out the gold and get rich quick.

Reports that his plane was in bad shape are printed in the papers in New York and two friends, Harry Fulback and Little Tiltus, start west in Fulback's plane to try and help Jimmy Goobar out of his trouble and likewise get in on the prospective gold. Turn to the comic section and continue the story in "Way Out West."

This new picture story by Forsythe is bound to be a big favorite after a most auspicious start. Forsythe born "way out west" in Orange Calif. and lived most of his life on the edge of the Mojave Desert. He knows his subject completely.

Older folks forget their cares for a moment or two reading "Way Out West" and the young people get a great treat out of it. Only a few days old, yet "Way Out West" is already the talk of the town.

Prisoner Foiled in Suicide Try

An attempt to commit suicide in his cell at the Roxbury Crossing police station by hanging himself with a strip of leather jacket was foiled for Clayton Suddard, 47, of Dana, Mass., yesterday, at which time police officers cut him down and revived him. Suddard was found hanging from the floor of his cell by Patrolman Thomas J. Johnson with the aid of Officer Joseph Tully, revived him.

I'VE FOUND VICKS NOSE DROPS PREVENT MANY COLDS

YES... AND VICKS VAPORUB ENDS A COLD SOONER

(Full details of Vicks VapoRub Control in each Vicks package)

VICKS PLAN FOR BETTER CONTROL OF COLDS

Copyright, 1934, King Features Synd. Inc.

CWA PLEA SENT TO ROOSEVELT

Boston's CWA controversy has been brought to a head today as a result of the long wrangle in the City Council yesterday, in which charges of politics at the expense of the jobs were hurled at city officials.

Out of the controversy emerged a telegram signed by a special city council committee to President Roosevelt asking for immediate action on CWA projects, as yet unapproved.

Councillor Henry Selivella, of East Boston, hurled the real bombshell of the day when he declared that the CWA work superintendent at City Hospital had showed him a notice instructing him to notify the mayor's office before any more workers were hired on projects there. It was also claimed that similar notices had been sent to those in charge of CWA work in other city departments.

The father's visits have damaged the health of my sons," Mrs. Potter testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

He described a letter he had received from Potter, in response to a letter saying he was coming to see the children.

Potter wrote him, Bassett testified, that he had discussed the matter with his wife, and could not allow Bassett to enter his home.

Potter and I merely exchanged punches before I was allowed to see my children," Bassett said.

Judge Edward O'Brien interrupted testimony of two doctors who described the alleged nervous condition of the two boys after their father's visits.

"Expert opinion is imaginary," Judge O'Brien said. "We'll do better if we get down to the practical side."

After Mrs. Bassett had pleaded for her children, Benjamin, 11, and William, 4, he spared their father's visit, Judge O'Brien remarked.

"If the father doesn't see the children often now, they won't know him when they grow up."

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

He described a letter he had received from Potter, in response to a letter saying he was coming to see the children.

Potter wrote him, Bassett testified, that he had discussed the matter with his wife, and could not allow Bassett to enter his home.

Potter and I merely exchanged punches before I was allowed to see my children," Bassett said.

Judge Edward O'Brien interrupted testimony of two doctors who described the alleged nervous condition of the two boys after their father's visits.

"Expert opinion is imaginary," Judge O'Brien said. "We'll do better if we get down to the practical side."

After Mrs. Bassett had pleaded for her children, Benjamin, 11, and William, 4, he spared their father's visit, Judge O'Brien remarked.

"If the father doesn't see the children often now, they won't know him when they grow up."

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

He described a letter he had received from Potter, in response to a letter saying he was coming to see the children.

Potter wrote him, Bassett testified, that he had discussed the matter with his wife, and could not allow Bassett to enter his home.

Potter and I merely exchanged punches before I was allowed to see my children," Bassett said.

Judge Edward O'Brien interrupted testimony of two doctors who described the alleged nervous condition of the two boys after their father's visits.

"Expert opinion is imaginary," Judge O'Brien said. "We'll do better if we get down to the practical side."

After Mrs. Bassett had pleaded for her children, Benjamin, 11, and William, 4, he spared their father's visit, Judge O'Brien remarked.

"If the father doesn't see the children often now, they won't know him when they grow up."

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

Bassett Seeks Children's Companionship Only

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

He described a letter he had received from Potter, in response to a letter saying he was coming to see the children.

Potter wrote him, Bassett testified, that he had discussed the matter with his wife, and could not allow Bassett to enter his home.

Potter and I merely exchanged punches before I was allowed to see my children," Bassett said.

Judge Edward O'Brien interrupted testimony of two doctors who described the alleged nervous condition of the two boys after their father's visits.

"Expert opinion is imaginary," Judge O'Brien said. "We'll do better if we get down to the practical side."

After Mrs. Bassett had pleaded for her children, Benjamin, 11, and William, 4, he spared their father's visit, Judge O'Brien remarked.

"If the father doesn't see the children often now, they won't know him when they grow up."

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

He described a letter he had received from Potter, in response to a letter saying he was coming to see the children.

Potter wrote him, Bassett testified, that he had discussed the matter with his wife, and could not allow Bassett to enter his home.

Potter and I merely exchanged punches before I was allowed to see my children," Bassett said.

Judge Edward O'Brien interrupted testimony of two doctors who described the alleged nervous condition of the two boys after their father's visits.

"Expert opinion is imaginary," Judge O'Brien said. "We'll do better if we get down to the practical side."

After Mrs. Bassett had pleaded for her children, Benjamin, 11, and William, 4, he spared their father's visit, Judge O'Brien remarked.

"If the father doesn't see the children often now, they won't know him when they grow up."

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

He described a letter he had received from Potter, in response to a letter saying he was coming to see the children.

Potter wrote him, Bassett testified, that he had discussed the matter with his wife, and could not allow Bassett to enter his home.

Potter and I merely exchanged punches before I was allowed to see my children," Bassett said.

Judge Edward O'Brien interrupted testimony of two doctors who described the alleged nervous condition of the two boys after their father's visits.

"Expert opinion is imaginary," Judge O'Brien said. "We'll do better if we get down to the practical side."

After Mrs. Bassett had pleaded for her children, Benjamin, 11, and William, 4, he spared their father's visit, Judge O'Brien remarked.

"If the father doesn't see the children often now, they won't know him when they grow up."

He would rather have greater accessibility to his two small children than their actual custody.

Benjamin F. R. Bassett of New York, wealthy clubman, told Judge Edward B. O'Brien today in probate court at Salem.

Bassett, battling an attempt by his former wife, Mrs. Gerrard Russell Potter of Newton, to have the number of visits allowed the father reduced, declared that he wants "a substantial part in the lives of my sons."

Yesterday, during a hearing in which an attempt by Judge O'Brien to effect a reconciliation failed, Mrs. Bassett testified. "On several occasions, he has come to see them while under the influence of liquor, has taken them on long automobile rides, and has returned them home late."

She claimed her ex-husband took the children expensive presents, and interfered with the simplicity of their home life.

Bassett, on the stand, declared he was fighting for the right of a father to see his children. He said he had not been allowed to see them since before Labor Day.

"Octave Thanet," Noted Novelist, Dies

Davenport, Ia., Jan. 9 (INS)—A lingering illness proved fatal today to Alice French, 83, novelist, known to two continents under the pen name of "Octave Thanet."

France Sent U. S. $890,000 in Wines

Washington, Jan. 9 (INS)—France was the chief supplier of the $890,000 worth of wines and liquors imported into this country during November, the Department of Commerce revealed today.

The Great

ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Company

soaks clothes whiter

QUAKER ROLLED WHITE OAT

Here is Proof of Value!

Compare these prices with what you usually pay for these items anywhere. Compare any A&P prices with others! Then you will appreciate why more than 5,000,000 American families are regular customers at the A&P.

RINSO	THE GRANULATED SOAP	LARGE PKG.	18c
QUAKER OATS	QUICK or REGULAR	PKG.	6c
AUNT JEMIMA	PANCAKE FLOUR	2 PKGS.	17c
BARLEY	SUNNYFIELD	POUND PKG.	12c
MELLO-WHEAT	BREAKFAST FOOD	PKG.	15c
BAKING POWDER	QUAKER MAID	1 LB. CAN	19c
SHAKER SALT	at a new low regular price	2 PACKAGES	15c
VERMONT MAID SYRUP	HALF PINT JAR		17c
BENDORP'S COCOA	HALF POUND CAN		25c
NBC UNEEDA BISCUITS	6 PACKAGES		25c
FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST	CAN		3c

Fresh Fruits & Vegetables

YELLOW ONIONS	5 LBS.	19c
ICEBERG LETTUCE	MEDIUM SIZE 2 NOS.	15c
HUBBARD SQUASH	5 LBS.	10c
CARROTS	FROM CALIFORNIA 2 BCHS.	13c
MIXED NUTS	FANCY BRAZILS—ALMONDS—PECANS—WALNUTS—FILBERTS	LB. 21c
WALNUTS or PECANS	FANCY	LB. 25c
ALMONDS	FANCY PAPER SHELL	LB. 21c

GUARANTEED MEATS at A&P MARKETS

Prices effective in Boston and Vicinity through Thursday, January 11

CORNE BEEF SALE

FANCY BRISKET	CORNE BEEF	LB.	17c
THICK RIB	CORNE BEEF	LB.	15c
MIDDLE RIB	CORNE BEEF	LB.	10c
CUBE STEAK	COOK ONE MINUTE ON EACH SIDE	LB.	23c
PICKWICK SAUSAGES		2 LBS.	25c
SMOKED SHOULDERS	SUNNYFIELD	LB.	13c
FRESH STEAK POLLOCK		POUND	9c
FRESH REDFISH		2 POUNDS	15c
HALIBUT		POUND	25c
TINKER MACKEREL		POUND	7c

1859 A&P FOOD STORES OF NEW ENGLAND The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Company 1934

The car that brought the Straight 8 to the low-price field... and increased sales 80% in 1933!

1934 models this week!

GET A STRAIGHT 8 FOR YOUR MONEY

I'VE FOUND VICKS NOSE DROPS PREVENT MANY COLDS

YES... AND VICKS VAPORUB ENDS A COLD SOONER

(Full details of Vicks VapoRub Control in each Vicks package)

VICKS PLAN FOR BETTER CONTROL OF COLDS

U. S. OPENS NEW SCANDAL QUIZ

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 8.—The fear of Tennessee political leaders of a federal investigation into the political and banking scandal will be realized according to advice reaching here from Washington. Wayne Williams, special assistant attorney-general, has been ordered to resume his investigation for the department of justice it is reported.

The investigation is the outgrowth of alleged falsification of books of the American National Bank, by Paul M. Davis, banker brother of Norman H. Davis, American's ambassador-at-large. Davis is under arrest on charges of conspiracy to defraud the state of $22,500 to be used in the election of Gov. McCallister, and for false banking entries "to deceive stockholders and creditors."

Oriental Fan Maids Banned From Federal Courts

Oriental maidens depicted smiling behind a fan on a Chinese calendar have no place in a U. S. court and were sentenced to banishment by Postal Inspector Thomas P. Cronin while engaged in a department survey of the new $5,000,000 federal building today.

The Chinese calendar, two in number, were on the wall behind the desk of U. S. Commissioner Edwin C. Jenney. They are regarded as works of art by the latter. The art commissioner who visited the court room were great admirers of the calendar. So were Chinese prisoners. In fact, the calendar with the pretty maidens were the object of the eyes of all visitors.

But Uncle Sam wants no such calendars other than the regulation Department of Justice calendars on government property. The latter calendar conform to the building rules, that no advertisements must be displayed. Inspector Cronin's visit was to enforce that rule. After a good natured verbal duel with Cronin over the Gaiety girls on the two calendars, and Commissioner Jenney still holding out that the calendars be allowed to remain where they were, the government won out and the calendars were removed. Cronin believed that the eyes of the Gaiety girls on the calendar had an advertising effect. Later Cronin visited other offices and ordered plants and flowers removed from windows.

Shelton Reveals Ancient Men Gaiety

Kennebec, Wash., Jan. 8.—The men who roamed this neck of the woods in ancient times were a husky lot, judging from a skeleton hauled from its burial place underneath a foot of gravel and rock by a road crew. More than six feet tall and with most of the bones intact, the skeleton bore verities the size of a man's fist. From teeth as large as most men's molars were in the skull.

CWA DROPS BAN ON PHYSICIANS

Washington, Jan. 8.—Rep. Edith N. Rogers claims she was told by Civil Works Administrator Hopkins that responsibility for medical care of workmen injured on civil works projects would be vested in county medical societies.

Previously, a ruling had been made by John J. Morris, counsel for the CWA, placing injured CWA workmen under workmen's compensation.

Mrs. Rogers presented to Hopkins a protest from the Massachusetts Medical Society against the ruling and was assured that county societies would be given control of the assignments of physicians and surgeons.

"WAY OUT WEST," Vic Forry's new comic, is one of the features of the enlarged 16-page Comic Section in color in the Boston Journal Advertiser and every day thereafter in the Boston American.

Fin. Com. Set for Probe of Vet Fraud Charges

Continued From First Page

Telephone in the district attorney's office, has been forced an official of the bureau to make up the amount at a rendezvous in the Parker House.

The story, as it is under investigation now and essentially as it will come before the Finance Committee, is as follows:

On Dec. 2, the father of eight went to the soldiers' relief bureau in City Hall and drew an emergency allowance of $15. His family was in straightened circumstances and he needed the money badly.

Near City Hall, after getting the payment, he met another veteran of his acquaintance who had visited the bureau just after he left it.

"See, you're lucky," said the second veteran.

SIGNED FOR $50

"What do you mean, lucky?" asked the father of eight.

"Why, you drew $55. I got $15. I didn't get any $55. I got $15."

"Well, you're down on the payroll," the first veteran returned to the bureau and saw Miss Mary Morley, the clerk in charge of the bureau, who was questioned Saturday by Mayor Mansfield.

"I drew $15 and I understand I'm down on the payroll for $55," the veteran told the cashier.

Miss Morley produced the sheet with the veteran's demand, but he was not permitted to see it. The entire office staff heard the veteran's demand, and the discussion that followed. Joseph Daley, holdover assistant commissioner, also questioned by the mayor, told Mansfield Saturday about this incident and said Miss Morley refused to show the payroll because, he supposed, "she was afraid."

Unsuccessful in his attempt to see the payroll and now convinced that what he had been told was the truth, the veteran went to the courthouse.

CALLED CRAZY

From an otherwise empty room assigned for the use of assistant district attorney, he phoned an official at the soldiers' relief bureau and represented himself as an assistant district attorney.

He said that, giving his own name, was at the district attorney's office making complaint about being "shortchanged" $40.

The official is said to have answered:

"Tell that fellow he's crazy. Send him down here, I want to see him."

$40 IN ENVELOPE

A few minutes later the veteran called the same official, gave his identity and was instructed to "Come down to the Parker House. I want to see you."

He went to the Parker House and there received an envelope containing $40. What it may be worth to the investigation, he still has the envelope; the money, needless to say, has been spent.

Shortly afterwards this veteran is said to have discovered many other amounts entered against his signature were in excess of the cash he received.

WILL HANDLE OWN CASE

Lyon's administration was staunchly defended by John J. Lydon, Jr., the former commissioner, who visited the Boston American office yesterday to assail the charges of graft laid before the mayor.

Lydon particularly attacked the story of Michael J. Cotone, South Boston disabled veteran, father of five, who claims a payment of $65 was recorded against his name when he was paid only $15 and that twice afterward he was given $2 and told to keep his mouth shut.

Young Lydon told of once getting $2 from his father to give to Cotone for a loan when the latter claimed to be up against it.

"It was around Dec. 12," he said. "Cotone met me at City Hall. He said, 'How much money have you got?' I said, 'Not much. How much do you want?'"

He said, "Can you loan me a few dollars? I'm going on the grand jury and I'll pay you on my day."

"All I had was 50 cents. He said, 'I know your father would let me have it until pay day.'"

I went up to my father and told him about it and he gave me $2 which I gave to Cotone on the fourth floor. He was waiting for me."

He told me what a swell fellow my father was—always taking good care of him. He belongs to the Perkins Club of the Legion, the same as my father.

"Cotone told me that there was a woman trying to do a job on my father and for him to watch out for her. He named her, she works at the Soldiers' Relief Bureau."

Our Boys Just Hoot Back

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

All tariffs seem to be as protective and as annoying as itchy underwear.

You can't stop them from starting import reprisals for export absorption.

We have a big commercial skirmish on with France right now and we seem to be eating at the second table.

Last month our gorgeous system of reciprocity was hosted in the French Chamber of Deputies. Last week, when Congress gave France the bird and we don't mean the Blue Eagle.

The international catall and the domestic Bronx cheer are valuable as condensed negatives.

We advise young high school orators to study this new form of forensic argumentation. (Copyright, 1934, distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

Couple Ask Custody of Slayer's Child

Because the child's mother is now serving a life sentence for the second-degree murder of her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Tamasoukas of Lowell today petitioned the Middlesex Probate Court for permission to adopt five-year-old Ellen Wita, of Cambridge.

Mrs. Annie Wita, mother of the baby, killed her husband, Anthony, during a quarrel on Sept. 10 last.

Turn to the classified page index and select the serial at that appears to you. Turn to it in the White Company and she will save you both time and money.

PWA DEPOSITS SUIT TO FORCE SPURNED HOME BONDS

Providence, R. I., Jan. 9.—Federal public works administration officials in this state are on the search for a bank to accept for deposit funds advanced by the government to the manipulative. Some local banks have refused to take the funds under the regulation which requires them to guarantee the deposits by posting U. S. bonds as collateral. The bankers disagree as to whether interest should be paid.

Springfield, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Margaret G. Moore of Amherst, in an equity suit filed here, asks the court to issue a mandatory injunction ordering the Northampton Cooperative Bank to accept bonds of the Home Owners Loan Corporation in satisfaction of the mortgage and note which the bank holds on to whether interest should be paid.

PAINE FURNITURE CO.

81 Arlington Street

Will Be OPEN Until Nine P. M. on Wednesday

so that those who cannot conveniently shop during the day may take advantage of the savings in

PAINE'S HRA CLEARANCE

An idea for Wednesday night

Have dinner at one of the many good eating places near Paine's. Shop unhurriedly for an hour or two. Then go to show or movie. Free parking for patrons in our alley in rear.

It's Paine's Home Recovery Act!

THE GREATEST ADVERTISING VALUE IN NEW ENGLAND

AMERICAN AUTO ADVERTISER

Classified Ads

Rates Per Line Per Day Effective

November 1st, 1933

1 Time	40c
3 Times (within 7 days)	35c
4 Times (within 7 days)	30c
7 Times (Consecutive)	28c
30 Times (Consecutive)	25c

During 12 months of 1933... compared with the same period of 1932, the Boston American and Sunday Advertiser GAINED 45,209 Classified Ads... all other Boston newspapers LOST a total of 85,342 Classified Ads.

To order an ad or for Personal Service Telephone

Liberty 4000

"Progress is the Proof of Merit"

QUICKER STARTING NO STALLING

—from Maine to Florida!

AMOCO-GAS

... BUT millions will tell you there's nothing else like it!

FOR almost two decades you've been missing something—particularly in weather like this!

It's the motor fuel triumph of the century—AMOCO-GAS—the original special motor fuel!

Now it's here! Came with the march of "AMERICAN"—from the great Middle Atlantic States where it stamped every highway with AMOCO-GAS achievements.

Call the Roll of States—Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, North Carolina—ask them! Millions of motorists say there's nothing else like AMOCO-GAS. And new millions in this—and other new states—will quickly add their praise and approval.

For AMOCO-GAS is not just "another premium gasoline". It is a special motor fuel. It was THE FIRST! And it has revolutionized both the gasoline and automobile industries. Made possible today's high compression motor. Changed all existing ideas on quick-starting, speed, power and performance.

Stop today at the Green Pump for your first experience with AMOCO-GAS—see what a world of difference there is in premium products.

AMERICAN OIL CO.

Maker of American Heating and Range Oils, Amoco-Gas, Orange American Gas, Amoco Motor Oils

BRANCH OFFICE, 465 RINGDGE AVE., CAMBRIDGE, MASS. PORTER 1800

NOTED WRITERS

Vagabondia

—By Bruno Lessing.

neath this spot where the pope is praying is supposed to be the burial place of St.

together—giving an unbelievable freshness and vividness to angels and madonnas, as

Number of Things By Charles Hanson Towne

them closely you realized that they, too, were mosaics of multi-colored marble. One color delicately set within another, a greeting a lady of my acquaintance one why I didn't write something who, live in great cities, see what often; the spectacle of people coming gradually, or even rapidly, making in-acquaintances. The circle grows to proportions. These new friends are their first names, and a great in-guage. When you have finished confessing you kneel outside and he taps you on the head with a light rod. This is the end of the ceremony.

On the few occasions when I am sick, I always lie away like a dog, and let no one know of my indisposition. I am not at all vain, but I am selfishness. "Why didn't you let us know?" "I didn't want to bother you," and so I see if there was anything I could do for you.

forty-eight columns. In one of the little chapels a baptismal party was going on. A and in decline your word and wine, and to drink your gall." — as if they had never known you. I even hoped to send a word of sympathy as has gone wrong. There is no real and lasting tie, only a lot of goodnights, slay forms passing on with no substance.

My lady that I didn't see things that was making the point that people were knew fewer people than we, but I was with them, with more than one other, men and women arrived at a columns that came from Jerusalem two thousand years ago which were probably ertain number of people, and know the circumstances of the case—the case of a friend of hers in has been a most successful man of the acquaintance of the friends of few years, entertained royalty, and and him on the road to fame they were and going smoothly, and the perhaps, when the crash came with In a twinkling the man lost every-essence of his life to their only son. My friend had a desire on them, but her husband told her her unwelcome news, and she to offer consolation. It would be main away.

As a woman's intuition, she went and her amazement found the man and in their family in their domestic home.
He no "friends" had even so much as only them in any word whatever.

Revert to prohibition morals.
What do our liquor laws say—
Martini topped with angostura,
The applejack and pousse cafe.
The brandy straight and pure
What say the virile whiskey sour.
The Jolly Bronx, the gay Manhattan
To patronize the local bar.
Rejoicing in the pre-war parties
If they could speak they would implore
To stand up always for the law
And most especially when drinking.
—Percy Shaw.

Plant

KNOW you do not love me in your heart look at the ceiling. Saw a rounded portion of the roof covered all with dazzling white

[illegible]

KEEP YOUR COMPLEXION AGE' AT SIXTEEN -- FIVE GREAT CRISES IN A WOMAN'S LIFE

Scientific Skin Analyzing Apparatus to Be in Town Only One Week

By Therese Deschamps

HOW OLD is your skin?
If you give your complexion correct beauty care, it may appear from 10 to 15 years younger than it really is, whether you are 20, 30, 40--or older.

"Complexion age" by no means coincides with the years a woman has lived, declares one internationally known beauty authority who has recently perfected a new apparatus for highly scientific analysis of the skin.

This remarkable contraption, recently perfected in her laboratory, will be introduced for the first time in America at a Boston store... this week. Arrangements have been made--during this one week only--for women in this vicinity to come and have their skins analyzed as to age, true flesh tones for cosmetic harmonization, and other conditions to determine corrective and beautifying skin care. There is no charge for this special service, incidentally.

"No woman needs to grow old or to look that way in her laboratory, scientific age. A few minutes' daily care with scientific--correct, preparations and flustering cosmetics can keep the complexion looking youthful and attractive far into maturity."

"I believe this skin analyzing method of mine is a great step forward in combating old age and skin problems of all kinds, since it makes extremely accurate analysis and treatment of the skin possible."

"This unique apparatus is also exceedingly valuable in supplying the basis for facial treatments which blend perfectly with the underlying flesh tints of the skin. It's possible to see all the various tints in the complexion, and to discover which tone predominates."

"In this way, it's possible for a woman to find powder which brings out to perfection her natural coloring. Lipstick and rouge which flatter her particular type of skin, and eye makeup that will do exciting, thrilling things for her whole personality," this beauty authority says.

Would you like to know where in Boston you can have your complexion scientifically analyzed?

Beauty Questions and Answers Superfluous Hair

Question: I want to bleach superfluous hair on my face with a fifty-fifty solution of persulfate and ammonia. Is this ammonia?
—Mrs. F. B. Boston.

Answer: No, that would be much too strong. Send along a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet on the ammonia. It tells how to mix and use the persulfate and ammonia bleach for unwanted hair on the skin.

Nail Polish

Question: I have a beautiful new nautarium bottle of nail polish. What shade of nail polish should go best with it?
—Miss A. P. Boston.

Answer: A natural shade should look best, since a rose or bright red would "clash" with the color of your cheeks.

The Last Dance

By MRS. BECKMAN

It is my understanding that the first and last dance are to be with the lady escorted to the dance.

I was recently at a dance and my escort had previously asked a lady for the next dance when it was announced that that particular dance would be the last one. I therefore politely advised him that it was the last dance. It was our dance and the circumstances, it seems to me that it would have been more gracious if you had let things take their course. That would have seemed more natural, since there was an indefiniteness about the dance. To you it would have been a disappointment, of course, but to the other young lady, it must have been a rather embarrassing procedure. Naturally there was nothing for her to do but to "agree to your suggestion."

Chances are that the lady who was asked for the next dance was not the one who was asked for the last dance. It is my understanding that the first and last dance are to be with the lady escorted to the dance.

Pandora Tells You

DEAR PANDORA:

I am a musician's wife. Furthermore I may say that I am one person, at least, who married her husband not because of his nice steady job, but in spite of it.

It is music... sometimes I love it, and there is really nothing I love more than going to a good concert, or listening to nice classical or modern music.

Over the radio. But I like to take my music in small doses, and that is just what I cannot do. Henry is at the piano all the time... from ten o'clock and right back to the rosy-fingered dawn again.

He is never really asleep since he lost his job. I awake... much too early... at five o'clock. I am a victim of the "Faustian" descent into madness, and I am around at dawn, and the soothing effect of "With a Hey-soony-denny and a Zie-Cha-

Broiling Bacon Gets Family Out of Bed

By Martha Lee

THE THREE LITTLE pigs may be very indifferent to the big bad wolf--but just let them meet the good cook! She values the flavor of bacon too highly to let them sit around and look satisfied and useless.

One way of getting a lazy family down to breakfast on time, is to open the kitchen door while you are broiling the bacon--and watch the family leap into the picture eagerly.

Bacon, however, is as versatile as it adds its flavor and handsome appearance to many a luncheon and dinner.

BACON AND MUSHROOM OMELET
3 slices bacon, dried
1 cup dried mushrooms
1 cup hot milk
1 cup finely rolled crackers
1 tsp. salt

Put bacon in frying pan over medium flame. When fat begins to melt, add mushrooms and lower flame. Pour hot milk over crackers and add salt. Beat egg whites until cream, then add egg yolk and beaten egg whites. Fold in gently beaten egg whites. Pour mixture over bacon and mushrooms. Cook covered over very low flame 20-25 minutes. Uncover, fold, slip onto hot platter, garnish with parsley and serve. Six nuts with potatoes and serve.

BACON AND LIVER PATTIES
1 cup minced, cooked liver and bacon
1 cup minced, crumbled crackers

1 egg, slightly beaten
1 tsp. minced onion
1 tsp. chopped parsley
1 tsp. salt
1 cup milk
Salt and pepper

Crush cracker fat. Mix ingredients, season, mix thoroughly and shape into patties. Fry in hot oil over medium flame. When browned on one side, turn over on the other. Six portions.

BROWN-POLIES
1 cup chopped meat
1 cup crumbled crackers
1 cup white sauce
Salt and pepper

Mix meat with crumbled crackers and combine with white sauce and seasoning. Shape into small rolls. Wrap one strip of bacon around each and fasten with a toothpick. Place in a baking dish and bake in a hot oven (475 deg. F.) until bacon is crisp. Serve with tomato sauce if desired. Six portions.

Cooking Classes
The first class of the winter series of the Martha Lee School of Practical Cooking is held this evening at 8:30 in the cheerful auditorium of the Boston American.

Although you are cordially invited to attend this session and enroll for the remaining series of 10.

The home-maker's class is to meet at 2. Attractive winter menus will be the subject of these classes with special and inspiring dishes prepared for you in the kitchen on the stage by Martha Lee.

Since the health and happiness of the home starts with good food properly prepared, the food prepared for you by the Martha Lee School of Practical Cooking is to be the subject of these classes with special and inspiring dishes prepared for you in the kitchen on the stage by Martha Lee.

Since the health and happiness of the home starts with good food properly prepared, the food prepared for you by the Martha Lee School of Practical Cooking is to be the subject of these classes with special and inspiring dishes prepared for you in the kitchen on the stage by Martha Lee.

Chances are that the lady who was asked for the next dance was not the one who was asked for the last dance. It is my understanding that the first and last dance are to be with the lady escorted to the dance.

It is music... sometimes I love it, and there is really nothing I love more than going to a good concert, or listening to nice classical or modern music.

Over the radio. But I like to take my music in small doses, and that is just what I cannot do. Henry is at the piano all the time... from ten o'clock and right back to the rosy-fingered dawn again.

He is never really asleep since he lost his job. I awake... much too early... at five o'clock. I am a victim of the "Faustian" descent into madness, and I am around at dawn, and the soothing effect of "With a Hey-soony-denny and a Zie-Cha-

Spring Hats Are a Travelogue

It is like a Russian coronet, the straw off-the-face hat, left. The brim edge is ruffled.

Top left, a picture hat of sheer linen with an interesting brim and a bright green feather shamrock for trimming. Center, an ensemble of cotton housewren in Mexican color--a Scotch bonnet--and matching bag and scarf.

about March. And old-fashioned cabbage roses such as we have been nesting at our throats lately have already sprung upon our new hats, and very lovely they look after their long rest.

The off-the-face hat will linger on, whether it be baby bonnet, Russian, or Sou'wester. Lots of the latter models have a stinking line across the brow, and it is a good thing for some of the girls, who really don't look their best when wearing a chapeau set in a perfectly horizontal line.

The tricorn is in again, trimmed with crisp little wheels of go-grain, as ever was, and there are lots of high-crowned hats with ruffles of go-grain tucked in their crown creases in exorcism effect.

IT IS a good thing to buy a new hat every little while, just to shake the morale. You can get a frock, suit, or coat to go with it. If it turns out to be a lucky number and if it stays quickly, it was a tonic while it lasted, anyway.

By Prunella Wood

INTERNATIONAL complications have set in all over the millinery business, with Mexican fabrics and coming along into Scotch bonnets, with Russian labels, and Russian lids hailing from Manhattan, though made of Oriental paper straw! It is quite a muddle, so far, with the daisy-trimmed garden hats, a la jolly old England, just around the sartorial corner. "Where did you get that hat?" can be answered in scores of tongues, including the Scandinavian. (Sure, we have knitted ski hats from the North Cape.)

THE cheeriest news on hats for these mid-winter days, however, is the great determination of designers here and there to put flowers on the spring models. Valley lilies and daisies will be here in time to titivate the annual rush for black and white frocks, long

Perky Touch of Organdy

(Authentic last minute fashions from New York--the style center of America)

By VICTORIA GAINES
THERE'S a time in every woman's life when she begins to look stale, and yet spring things seem a trifle out of place amid snow and ice.

That's where these fresh new fashion ideas step in, to gladden your heart and glorify your appearance. One of the best bets is a fabric hat of falls silk, satin or belting ribbon. They look wintry enough to wear with your dark coat, and yet somehow smack of spring.

These new hats hit the headlines, retreat from the hair-line, and flutter the whole face. And there's nothing like a new hat to make a new woman of you!

If you feel ready to scream at the sight of that black dress that has been trotting back and forth to business all season try these crisp new collars and cuffs or gaiters. They're ruffy, perky affairs of organdy or linen, and they'll do wonders toward working up a new interest in the old frock. They take the place of the saucy gingham we've been come a bit bored with lately--and add under spring coats later.

They bridge the between-seasons gap beautifully, and are grand builders-up for a run-down wardrobe. In small lively prints, with the crisp organdy touches mentioned above, or bright crisp trimmings to the predominant color of the print, they're particularly attractive.

Next to a whole new dress, a new blouse is the best argument against the annual cry of "If that metallic mouse that looked like a gift from the gods to you three months ago is merely fit for a dog, change it for one of the newer blouses in soft pastel crepe.

Betrothal, Marriage, When Honeymoon Ends, First Baby --And Crowding Years

By Sheila Graham

MOST WOMEN think their lives are all crises, with one or two small periods of tranquility. A missed party. An argument with the folks; a quarrel with the boy friend; an altercation with the woman in the next apartment; Tommy's chicken pox; Fred's cigarette ash on the drawing room carpet, etc., etc. But all these things are like yesterday's newspaper--forgotten when contrasted with the real crisis in the average woman's life.

These are five of them. The day a woman becomes engaged. The day she marries. When the honeymoon is over. The day she has her first child, and the black day she can no longer conceal her real age.

The day she becomes engaged! The thrilling knowledge she has had the label "Wanted" affixed to her for all the world to see. She is separated from those beings who are not clever enough, or lonely enough, or who would sooner wait forever than marry a man who does not come up to their rigid standards.

An engaged girl in love with her fiancé, however homely her features, becomes beautiful. As under radiant transforms her from an ugly duckling into a bright, glowing creature.

ROSE-PINK CRISIS
I call this the "rose-pink" crisis. Nothing will ever be so beautiful--or unreal again. She and the man of her choice will never know so little about each other as they do now.

The next crisis. The day of her marriage.

When she awakes in the morning the realization the day has arrived when she can brand the mark of "married" on her capture, sends her scampering to her mirror. Today of all days she wants to look her best.

While she is dressing she is filled with alarm. Suppose something should happen to him while he is speeding toward her? Many bridegrooms have been killed through driving recklessly on their wedding day. It takes the appearance of the man to convince her his fears are groundless.

"This is my wedding day," she repeats through her brain. Vaguely she wonders about the other Toms and Dicks and Harveys. Is she making a mistake for marrying Charles? Ought she to wait and see if his first fling in the sea as ever came out of it.

HONEYMOON'S END
And then suffices the honeymoon is over. She has discovered Charles has a great many irritating habits she never knew of. Why does he always sneak his hollow back teeth? She never knew any man could be so unkind. Has she made a mistake? Perhaps Tom would have made a better husband. Honeymoon seems a poor substitute for the work she did in the

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST

Grapefruit and Orange
Cup
Broiled Salmon
Fried Cornish Hens
Butter Milk Syrup
Coffee Milk

LUNCH

Macaroni and Cheese
Lettuce French Dressing
Bread and Butter
Tea Milk

DINNER

Broiled Veal Tongue
Boiled Potatoes
Spinach with Egg
Bread and Butter
Snow Pudding, Custard Sauce
Coffee

"This is the worst"

This young wife thought romance had fled--UNTIL

Avoid offending Underthings absorb perspiration odor--Protect daintiness this easy way

No girl need ever be guilty of perspiration odor in underthings. Lux takes it away completely and never colors. And it's so easy. But do avoid cake-soup rubbing and soaps containing harmful alkali that fades color. Lux has no harmful alkali. Anything safe in water is safe in Lux.

for underthings
Removes perspiration odor
Saves colors...

20-Year-Old Rye Landed Here

Worcester, 20-year old rye whiskey, almost worth its weight in gold, 1000 cases of it, representing some of the finest, carefully guarded, landed in Boston today. It was the first shipment to this city since the Bostonian's arrival here in 1912. The first number in the line was the Lady Dorian. The consignment split it over.

Good Road Apostle Gets N. H. Honor

Concord, N. H., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Drew of New Hampshire has been honored by the New Hampshire highway commission for his long preaching of the gospel of good roads. He has received the highway commission's highest honor, the highway commission's highest honor, the highway commission's highest honor.

PRINCE GEORGES Princess' Changing Modes BARBARIN PHONE CALL

San Francisco, Jan. 8.—(AP)—When or without her daughter, Princess Alexandra, who is the daughter of the late King George V, and the late Queen Mary, the princess is here in the city of San Francisco. She is here in the city of San Francisco. She is here in the city of San Francisco.

back and down in front, boat-shaped, with a bunch of sixties, perfectly formed, from the back of her head. She wore white gloves and a house of pink, gold-embroidered, with puffed sleeves, and a red and white striped skirt. She was with a reported note in the Midway wardrobe, carried into the city of San Francisco. She is here in the city of San Francisco.

BYRD SHIPS LAG IN POLAR FOG

Abroad Admiral Byrd's Flagship Jan. 8.—The flagship of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition creeps slowly through a thick fog toward its destination. Some comfort was found, however, in the fact that the vast number of icebergs sighted in these waters 12 days ago had vanished.

Sea-Serpent Amy Likes Gulls Now

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Amy, the sea serpent, has acquired a reputation as a gourmand. According to three Victoria Telegrams today, she is permitted to select the water off Guelph's Pond, and she is permitted to select the water off Guelph's Pond, and she is permitted to select the water off Guelph's Pond.

EMMA GOLDMAN SEEKS RETURN

Toronto, Ont. Jan. 8.—(AP)—Emma Goldman, who had been deported from the United States, is seeking to return to the United States. She is seeking to return to the United States. She is seeking to return to the United States.

ECONOMY GROCERY STORES

Another Great Sale

TOMATO SOUP 4 cans 25c

SPAGHETTI 4 pkgs. 25c

CORN 5 cans 25c

CLOROX 2 pint 25c

Ketchup 2 lbs. 25c

Lux Toilet Soap 4 cakes 25c

Evr-Redy Dog Food 4 cans 25c

Santa Clara Prunes 40 50 lbs. 25c

Fruits for Salad 2 lbs. 25c

Sliced Bacon 2 1/2 lbs. 25c

Wax Beans 2 cans 25c

Tomatoes 2 cans 25c

Tooth Paste 3 tubes 25c

Shaving Cream 3 tubes 25c

Stove Polish 2 cans 25c

Cleaner Polish 2 cans 25c

Chicken Broth 3 cans 25c

Brer Rabbit 2 cans 25c

Arbutus Tea 1/2 lb. 25c

Lovely Jell 6 pkgs. 25c

Ecco Pancake Flour 3 lbs. 25c

Maple Syrup 12 oz. 25c

Campbell's Beans 5 cans 25c

Pineapple Juice 2 cans 25c

Toilet Paper 6 rolls 25c

Grapefruit 2 lbs. 25c

Cookies 2 lbs. 25c

... and many other 25c Sale Values

At least that was the statement made today by the princess, who is the daughter of the late King George V, and the late Queen Mary, the princess is here in the city of San Francisco. She is here in the city of San Francisco. She is here in the city of San Francisco.

U. S. Liner Battles Seas for Three Days
Glasgow, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The S.S. California of the Anchor Line arrived today after a successful battle with what her crew described as the worst storm of her history. A few passengers received minor injuries but three days and nights of passengers were greeted below deck. Waves broke over the ship and a giant pump was found about like a toy.

Pipe Break Floods Roosevelt Cellar

Slight damage at the home of James Roosevelt, son of the President, in Walnut St., Brookline, caused by the breaking of a pipe connecting the house and municipal water system, was being repaired today.

Long Life at Hard Work

Charmie, Jan. 8.—L. A. Johns, who was a blacksmith's hammer until he was 87, celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary yesterday.

The Best GRAY HAIR REMEDY IS MADE AT HOME

There were about 20 people sitting on the water about 40 yards from shore, and March 10. All of a sudden there was a commotion among them and a large head came about three feet out of the water. The arguins, starting pecking at it and the serpent grabbed one of them and swallowed it.

NOW... JANUARY SUMMERFIELD'S

Both Stores Open Mon., Thurs., Sat. Evenings Until 9 P. M.

Summerfield's breakfast set department is one of the finest in New England. Here you will find a vast assortment calculated to suit the most exacting taste—78 styles in all, among them "Dinah Cook" sets and other nationally famous makes. Five sets have been selected at unprecedented reductions as a feature of our January sale.

Spanish Renaissance SET

The dignity and majesty of the Spanish Renaissance period is brought out in this beautiful set. It consists of a divan and matching chair, covered in fine tapestry. The bases of the pieces are beautifully decorated, and the massive size of the divan and chair is set off by heavy carved panels and legs.

Regular Price... $120.00
Contrasting chair if desired... $29.50

Dutch Colonial Breakfast Set

Consists of four solid oak Dutch chairs and a heavy solid oak pedestal base table with pullout ends.

Regular price $35
$19.95

Solid Maple Trestle Set

Genuine colonial reproduction. Solid maple table with new trestle base and four solid maple ladder back chairs with saddle shaped seats. Table opens to include leaf. Extra chairs if desired.

Reg. $40.00
$29.95

It's Easy to Pay the Summerfield Way

One of America's Great Furniture Stores

212 Elm St., Boston, Cor. Stuart St.
Somerville Store, Davis Square—212 Elm St., Somerville

Genuine Spring LAMB FORES lb. 9c

Best Cuts PORK CHOPS lb. 17c

- Middle Rib CORNED BEEF lb. 10c
- Fancy Brisket CORNED BEEF lb. 19c
- Fresh Ground Hamburg lb. 10c
- Fresh Shoulders Excellent Pork Roast lb. 10c
- Fancy Mackerel lb. 7c

- FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
- Grapefruit 3 large 19c 4 med. 19c
- New Cabbage Fancy 4 lbs. 19c
- Carrots or Beets Fancy California 2 bu. 13c

ECONOMY GROCERY STORES

GWA HEADS OFF OF OVERWORK

New York, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The strain of overwork, which has been held to be the cause of the death of the late President, is being held to be the cause of the death of the late President. The strain of overwork, which has been held to be the cause of the death of the late President, is being held to be the cause of the death of the late President.

Armored Car Goes to Washington

Apparently involved in the past in the dope traffic, the mysterious armored car arrived in the city of Washington. The car was today being driven over the road to Washington, heavily guarded.

Waltham Benefit Split Is Proposed

Replying to an invitation for Waltham to join in the nation-wide movement for a "Birthday Day" January 20, in observance of the 52d birthday of President Roosevelt, Mayor Frederick L. MacDonaid proposed today that part of the proceeds of the affair be used to relieve local distress.

HUSKY THROATS VICK'S COUGH DROP

Overlooked by coughing, sneezing, itching, sneezing

Semi-Modern Porcelain Enamel Set

Stainless porcelain enamel table with solid maple base and large silver drawer, and sliding automatic leaves and four ladder back chairs with metal braces and saddle shaped seats. Reg. price $59.00.

Kitchen Cabinets $29.50 to $59.50

Electric Food Mixer

Mixes, whips, beats, extracts fruit juices. Complete with set $8.95. Reg. price $14.50.

Oil Burners

Summerfield's Peerless Oil Burners with chrome-plated basket. Never sold before at less than $14.95. Special.

Congoleum Rugs

Choice of 5x12 or 9x12 sizes. First quality. Discontinued pattern. $4.95.

ELLS WITH LATEST NEWS

ES SHOWS C NEEDS ITS OWN POLICE

ATTY CORBETT, FORMER IN THE STAR, DEAD

Forced Boxing Reform
as Representative of Somerville

Atty. William Corbett, former representative from Somerville, and former national amateur right weight boxing champion, died suddenly in his home, 50 Walnut st., Somerville, today, a victim of apoplexy.

While a student in Technology, from which he graduated in 1921, Corbett gained nationwide fame as a pugilist. Fighting in the light weight division, he divided his time between the ring and his civilian books, and after capturing the state championship, he fought his way to the national amateur championship in 1925.

HARVARD LAW GRADUATE.
On graduating from Tech, Corbett abandoned the ring and entered Harvard Law School, from which he graduated in 1924. He then became a graduate counsel at the Washington & Lee and in 1928 was admitted to the Massachusetts bar.

Four years ago he entered upon a political career and was elected a representative from Somerville, one of the largest political offices in the state.

He retired from politics last November. While in the House, Atty. Corbett fostered several bills for re-organization of the supervisory structure of boxing in this state against the bitter opposition of many promoters of professional boxing.

He insisted he was carrying on the fight in the interest of youngsters who entered upon ring careers about which he knew so much. Several times during his fight for such legislation he received threats on his life and was placed under a police guard at his home.

HERO IN FIRE RESCUES
Four years ago Atty. Corbett was the hero of a fire that swept his home when he rescued his mother, another woman and two children. In effecting these rescues was overcome and had to be removed to Somerville Hospital for treatment.

Atty. Corbett is survived by his mother, Mrs. Bridget Corbett, two brothers and three sisters. Funeral services will be held from his home, 50 Walnut st., Somerville, Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m.

BLAZE IN BROOKLYN
The state fire marshal's office has ordered an inquiry into the fire at the two-family house at 283 Mountain ave., Malden, which resulted in the death of a young man.

The apartment was occupied by Isaac Gordon and family. Police and firemen first investigated and declared shoddy pipes soaked in some substance were found in several of the rooms and about unobstructed furniture. The Gordons were away from home when the fire broke out. Mr. Gordon informed police he could think of no one who would have set the place on fire through any grudge or enmity.

Inspector Horner, who led the Malden officers in their investigation and then arranged for the inquiry.

Men's Club to Hear
Lieut.-Gov. Bacon
Lieut. Gov. Bacon will speak at a dinner of the Men's Club of Newton Highlands Thursday evening at 7 p.m. at the club house.

He will be introduced by Mayor Stanley Weeks. Other guests will be Hon. Speaker Leverett Saltonstall, Gen. Daniel Readman, Arthur W. Holtz, and Reps. William D. Baker and Clarence S. Little.

Mayor Irvin Adds Quarters for Staff
Mayor Irvin, of Medford, is having the outer office divided into two offices. The new quarters will occupy one of the new offices and Percy John J. Bray will occupy the other.

Army Fliers Start for Miami
New York Jan. 8 (AP)—Seven planes of the fifth observation squadron, U. S. Army Air Corps, under command of Capt. William Taylor, left here today for Miami, Fla., to participate in the air race there.

Dares Gang's Ire

Threats after he had spurned offers of $500 and a trip South could not deter Mrs. Anna Davis of Cambridge from prosecuting her charges of criminal attack against four men and she landed two others in the toils. (Boston American photo.)

PAIR ARRESTED IN BRIBE CASE
The woman is Mrs. Anna Davis, 21, of Marlborough st., Cambridge who telephoned from a garage near her home, and asked for police protection. When officers found her she said she had been approached by the pair and, that after she spurned their offer, they threatened her with bodily harm.

Davis charged the men with offering her the cash payment and trip if she would "do" as they wished. When the four, who are being held in $50,000 bail each, were due to go to trial.

Life Term for Kidnaping
in This State Asked
A plea for a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment for any person who kidnaps for the purpose of extortion was made by Rep. Thomas A. Delmore of Lowell before the House judiciary committee today.

Rep. Delmore declared that a crime should be made as that it would keep federal agents out of such Massachusetts crimes and thereby avoid any possibility of a conflict of authority.

Rep. Delmore, reading from a magazine article that gave credit for the return of Margaret "Peggy" Delahanty to her home after her kidnapping last May to federal agents.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

MEADOR RUM BEING
2 CONCERNS

Frank Sawyer Heads
One; H. V. Greene
Hired by Other

Two separate corporations are in battle for supremacy in the manufacture of that famous old drink, Meador rum, which has not been produced since 1900.

One of the corporations the Boston Evening American learned today, is headed by Frank Sawyer, Cheever Tarrish Co. president and close friend of Atty. Charles H. Ives. It will be known as the Meador Rum Corporation, and its plant probably will be located in Boston.

The other company will be known as the Old Meador Rum Distillery, Inc., and according to records on file in the Sec. of State Building, it will be headed by Atty. Franklin I. Phillips, of Gardner st., Cambridge.

Atty. Phillips said today he was no longer president of the company but as attorney for two real owners, filed a certificate of incorporation to be used to name the new owners, but they were reputable Boston citizens who had been in business here more than 40 years.

The Boston Evening American learned that one of the principal employees of the company is Henry V. Greene, who rose from a $12 a week auto clerk to the head of a $50,000 installment plan business, age office only so broke and file a petition in bankruptcy.

Greene, according to Atty. Phillips, has been engaged because his legal knowledge is needed for aging rum in 24 hours of the world for three or four years as he had been doing in the old days.

The Old Meador Rum Distillery, Inc., will be located at Hall st. and Riverside ave., Medford, and will begin the manufacture of rum and gin within 30 days, Phillips said. More than 150 persons will be employed and all of the product will be bottled in bottles instead of in barrels as was the case when Meador rum was made by the famous Lawrence family.

SAWYER'S COMPANY
Associated with Frank Sawyer in the Meador Rum Co. is his brother, William Sawyer, as vice-president, Edward McCarthy of Cabot st., Newton, treasurer; Joseph J. Watson, of 41 Nottingham rd., Brighton, was named as president, and Miss Evelyn H. Streeter, of 77 Valley st., Dedham, a secretary in Bretter's office was named clerk.

Twenty days later, records at the State House show, papers were filed and the Sawyers were named while Watson and Miss Streeter were dropped.

Life Term for Kidnaping
in This State Asked
A plea for a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment for any person who kidnaps for the purpose of extortion was made by Rep. Thomas A. Delmore of Lowell before the House judiciary committee today.

Rep. Delmore declared that a crime should be made as that it would keep federal agents out of such Massachusetts crimes and thereby avoid any possibility of a conflict of authority.

Rep. Delmore, reading from a magazine article that gave credit for the return of Margaret "Peggy" Delahanty to her home after her kidnapping last May to federal agents.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
I KNOW IT, BUT I AIN'T PAPA'S FAULT.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THE BOWL WAS TOO SMALL.

SKIPPY---Not His Dish
THAT'S A FUNNY-LOOKIN' HUNNY.

Kidnap Death Threatens Rudnick Baby

NEWTON RESIDENCE OF RUDNICK FAMILY
CARL A. RUDNICK

BOY GIVES LIFE
FOR SISTER

Because her nine-year-old brother bravely went to his death in the icy waters of the Saugus river, Anne Farley, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Farley of 60 Hooper st., Saugus, is alive today.

It was only yesterday afternoon that the little boy, Leo Arthur Farley, raced home with his sister from school and just as they would get their first, darted across the thin ice of the river. The girl followed. It was a short-cut home though both had been warned the ice was unsafe.

The lad was half way across when the ice gave way. He fell headlong into the water. A second time the girl, unable to turn back, pitched in with him.

Hearing the children's screams, James Cunningham, 121 State st., Saugus, ran to their rescue. He reached the edge of the ice and reached for the boy.

"Never mind me," the brave youngster gasped, "save my sister. I'm all right."

Cunningham, with the ice cracking under him, grasped the girl and managed to stagger to shore. John J. Murphy, police officer and fireman rushed to the scene but the boy had disappeared. Two hours later they dragged the lifeless 4-year-old little figure from the water.

MURPHY SEEKS CITY PROBE
Angered by criticism of his administration while mayor of Somerville, in which it is alleged there were extensive frauds practiced in the welfare department, John J. Murphy, now United States marshal, today appealed to Dist. Atty. Warren L. Bishop for an immediate grand jury investigation.

At the same time the former mayor communicated with three banks asking for a statement as to the financial condition of Somerville during his term as chief city executive.

Murphy's action in writing to Bishop is the first blow struck in retaliation at charges, assertedly leaked by the press, against James E. Hagan, that "bug" frauds" existed in the welfare department of Murphy's administration.

Funeral in Nova Scotia
Funeral services will be held in Antigonish, N. S., tomorrow for Dr. Alexander A. Macdonald, 44-year-old of Lyndhurst st., Dorchester, who died in the Nova Scotia town yesterday.

Aged Woman Dying of Skull Fracture
Alleged by police to be the outcome of a protracted drinking party, Mrs. Catherine Carr, 75, was found in a skull fracture, and declared her condition was grave.

The helpup all threats against the Rudnicks have created considerable fear in the neighborhood and extra police details will be sent there tonight.

Children's Friends to Observe Founding
Channing H. Cox will be toastmaster at the 100th anniversary dinner of the Boston Children's Friend Society in the Louis XIV ballroom of the Hotel Somerset Thursday at 7 p.m. He will be introduced by Edgar C. Sumner, president of the society.

The Reverend Arthur L. Kinsolving will speak on the needs of the community of the child caring agencies. Governor Joseph B. Eliot will give a short address, and Dr. William Lloyd will deliver a lecture on the history of the society. Madam Olga Averino, soprano, will entertain.

WORK MORE, EARN MORE, SPEND MORE IN 1934

RECEPTION MEASURES ABOUT
85 PER CENT EFFECTIVE

"Dead Spots" Generally Encountered in Business and Home Districts; Elsewhere Calls Came Clear

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

It was an exciting night, crisscrossing around the city in the fire of the radio equipped "crow" cars, turned in for a summons by radio to any scene of action within 60 seconds after an emergency alarm and is broadcast. This step, recently demanded of Police Commr. Hullman by Gov. Ely, and long vigorous urged by the Boston Evening American, was found to be effective in a transitory checkup of reception conditions, in every neighborhood that goes to make up Greater Boston.

RECEPTION AMAZING
Stated in what was a veritable arsenal, for all of the riot gear, automatic rifle and tear gas equipment was used in the water.

GEORGE GETS 1099 VOTES FOR FIRST PLACE IN FALL RACING

9 LADIES AMONG WINNERS IN RATINGS

How Wrestlers Are Rated by Fans

- 1-Jim Donaghy
- 2-Jim Browning
- 3-Horff Dufkins
- 4-John London
- 5-Joe Savoy
- 6-Mackenzie Lewis
- 7-Gus Sonnenberg
- 8-Joe McFarlane
- 9-Hans Schiefel
- 10-Earl McCreary

By JACK CONWAY

HOT TIP: Donaghy, King of Wrestling

Boston's favorite American wrestler has been crowned at the head of the parade in the fall racing. He did not receive a single opponent on from the other wrestlers. He got 1099 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Second place honors went to Jim Browning who received 713 votes. Browning, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Third place honors went to Horff Dufkins who received 613 votes. Dufkins, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Fourth place honors went to John London who received 513 votes. London, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Fifth place honors went to Joe Savoy who received 413 votes. Savoy, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Sixth place honors went to Mackenzie Lewis who received 313 votes. Lewis, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Seventh place honors went to Gus Sonnenberg who received 213 votes. Sonnenberg, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Eighth place honors went to Joe McFarlane who received 113 votes. McFarlane, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Ninth place honors went to Hans Schiefel who received 100 votes. Schiefel, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

Tenth place honors went to Earl McCreary who received 100 votes. McCreary, a bit smaller than the head of the parade, is a real wrestler. He got 100 votes. No other wrestler received 100 votes for first place rating.

When Browning's Crown Teetered

The face of Jim Browning, New York's mat champion, contorted with pain and his walls echoed throughout the Madison Square Garden last night when Ray Steele tightened up a combination body scissor and arm twist. Browning's crown was in jeopardy at this moment. Jim came back, however, and won the match with an airplane whirl

RAY STEELE

THE STRANDINGS

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

Bike Field

Milwaukee, Jan. 8 (AP)—Pilot Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

188.9 miles in 101 hours.

Van Kempen and Andy Lap

championship, stole a lap in the

end-of-the-race early today and

went into the lead after riding

MALONEY'S RING FIGHTS HANGS ON GO TONIGHT

Miami, Fla., Jan. 8 (AP)—Johnny Dawson, the Cleveland boxer, and Jimmy Maloney of Boston, two veteran campaigners of the heavyweight wars, meet in a 10-round bout here tonight with a chance to fight Mickey Walker as the chief prize.

Maloney retired some time ago but diminishing returns to his Boston properties forced him back to the ring under "Pat" Maloney. Principally because he was slowed by years of being in the ring, he was back to fight "Red" Barry. Since then, however, he has won a number of engagements.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

The fight, a decision, will be the fourth ring meeting of Maloney and Maloney, with the Cleveland winning the last two. Maloney won the first two. Maloney won the third.

For both men the fight marks a crucial point in their "comeback effort," with Maloney also carrying the high hopes of W. L. "Pat" Striving to lead a fighter to the world championship denied him.

MR. BOSTON

By JACK CONWAY

JOHNNY BUCKLEY was in a serious mood when I dropped into the swat parlor of his brother, Jerry, on Friend at. Perhaps Buckley has cause for being a bit heavy of heart as 1933 was a very disastrous year for his family estate.

Ernie Schaefer, the following bout with Primo Carnera, Jack Sharkey lost the heavyweight championship of the world when he was washed up, and was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world. He was a great loss to the world.

CATFISH SECKETT'S THREAT

By BILL CONNELL

Roaring along the title track of the Greater Boston International Hockey League is Catfish Seckett, a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

fourth year.

"Jump" Joe Seckett is from

Stratford, Conn., a 27-year-old

forward, who has been threat-

ening to lead the team for

CHAMP'S DUO GRAPPLING MO. BEATS STEEL IN GO TONIGHT

By HYTE LOGG

New York, Jan. 8 (AP)—If you wish to know the ins and outs of

Jim Browning's rickshaws, properly spin him by his arm. Steele is a tough, powerful, and a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very strong fighter. Steele is a very

strong fighter. Steele is a very

Complete Final Closing Prices--Last Sale Printed on Tape at 3:05 P. M.

NEW YORK CLOSE NET

Approximate Sales Today
780,000 shares
Yesterday's sales 715,030
Week ago 1,267,390

[illegible]

COOK-COOKS

by TED COOK

And the main cause of economic advice seem to be based on the idea that business will increase if more money is in circulation, or on the idea that more money will be in circulation if business increases.

BLACK-OUT
(Lamar, Mo., December)
Mrs. Cecil Hackney has sworn out a warrant for her husband. She says they had a quarrel, Tuesday morning, that apparently started when she began to insist on Cecil's going out and getting something to eat and letting her to make the living.

She says Cecil gathered up his clothes, tore down one of the stove and left home.

UNITED WE STAND FOR TOO MUCH

New income tax amendments will fill millions' throats from gill to gill.
The bigger fish who swim the sea will find a way to wiggle free.

DAILY DOUBT

"The danger that an interested witness would not speak the truth—never was as great as claimed—it is effect has been minimized almost to the vanishing point by cross-examination, the increased intelligence of jurors, and perhaps other circumstances."

Similar to Time—
Bleed as a prince's slip.

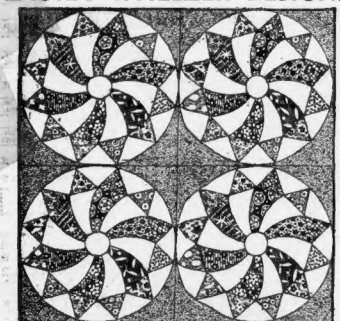

LONG LIVE THE KING

NEW YORK—Allen Lane, English publisher of Arnold's cartoons, reports the Duke of York told him "That Arnold's book is my father's favorite book, and he says his favorite picture is the one of him standing on a balcony in robes of state reviewing troops with the caption, 'I don't wear anything under this but my underwear.'"

"What I like about the long window—months—hugs a Genesis, the kitchen civic. The last people are forced to some of their coughing outside of theaters."

LAURA WHEELER DESIGNS

FEATHERED STAR PATTERN 561
Feathered Star is one of the most lovely scrap quilts that is as much a joy to make as it is to possess. It is most effective done in a great variety of scraps, although some people carry it out in a few materials that are repeated throughout. The patches are a good size to handle and are easily joined. Pattern left comes to you with completely simple instructions cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials. Send for this pattern to Boston American Needlecraft Dept., 15 Kington Ave., New York City.

Daily Crossword Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

- 2—Daily complaint
- 3—Catching for the
- 4—Puffed
- 5—Share
- 6—Wander
- 7—Brings to a halt
- 8—Distillation
- 9—Sweeping
- 10—Apprentice
- 11—A small allowance
- 12—This of respect
- 13—Point for a portrait
- 14—This place or
- 15—See seals
- 16—Partable at the
- 17—National part of
- 18—Portico
- 19—Warm
- 20—Dramatic of war
- 21—Family rural
- 22—Part of a church
- 23—Kind of poem
- 24—Laugh people
- 25—For fear that
- 26—Trop
- 27—Income from
- 28—For
- 29—Body of law
- 30—Defiance
- 31—Connection
- 32—Coffer
- 33—Born partially
- 34—Prestigious place
- 35—Kind of seed
- 36—Overgrown

VERTICAL

- 1—Back
- 2—Bunch
- 3—Altra back over
- 4—Not subjected to
- 5—To be
- 6—To be
- 7—To be
- 8—To be
- 9—To be
- 10—To be
- 11—To be
- 12—To be
- 13—To be
- 14—To be
- 15—To be
- 16—To be
- 17—To be
- 18—To be
- 19—To be
- 20—To be
- 21—To be
- 22—To be
- 23—To be
- 24—To be
- 25—To be
- 26—To be
- 27—To be
- 28—To be
- 29—To be
- 30—To be
- 31—To be
- 32—To be
- 33—To be
- 34—To be
- 35—To be
- 36—To be

Copyright, 1934, by Eugene Sheffer

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE

1. I HAD THE MOST ARRA... COMIC CARTOON I EVER SEEN—40,000 A WEEK! POPEYE: WELL THEN WILL YOU GIVE ME $300 A WEEK?

2. YER TERRIBLE, KNOW THAT? VA ANIT A BIT FUNNY?

3. VA QUANT TO BE A CLAM-DIGGER? ALL WORK FOR $300 A WEEK? YER STUFF'S ROTTEN? WIDOW A WEEK?

4. I'LL GIVE VA TWENTY-FIVE BUCKS A WEEK—HERE, SIGN THIS CONTRACT.

5. OH, ALL RIGHT.

6. THIS IS WHAT—SAY DON'T BE SO BLUE, MR. BULLYCON—HAG IF I COULD DRUM! SWELL CARTOONS LIKE YOU TO BE HAPPY—YER THE BEST COMIC ARTIST ON EARTH!

WAY CUT WEST

(KEEP UP WITH THE STORY IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

1. "IF YOU WANT ON GOING I'LL TAKE YOU, BUT I'LL FLY FAST AND ROUGH AND I'LL SWIM THAT DESERT UNTIL I FIND THE—YOU MAY GET SCARED STUFF!"

2. I CAN STAND IT. HARDY—ALL I WANT IS TO HELP FIND POOR OL' JIM—I'LL GO!

3. THEY'RE OFF—TALK TO THE WEST! THE DESERT HAS TAKEN THEIR PAIR JIM IN IT'S TIGHT CLAWS!

4. SNEAK THAT STRAP UP, TELL US WE'RE DOING 220 MILES AN HOUR AN' YOU'LL GET A MEAT BOUNCING!

5. IN THE MEANTIME, JIM'S WIFE IS AT JIM'S HOME, KNOWING NOTHING AS YET OF HER HUSBAND'S DANGER—SHE HASN'T SEEN THE PAPERS—

6. BUT JIM SAID HE'D WISE ME THE MINUTE HE GOT TO THE DANGER—I CAN'T HELP WORRYING—I'M AFRAID SOMETHING'S GONE WRONG—THE STORMS—

BRINGING UP FATHER

(FOLLOW JIGGS AND MAGGIE IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

1. THERE'S TWENTY MORE TRUNKS COMING.

2. THIS ISN'T A HOME—IT'S A HOUSE.

3. WELL, ALL MAGGIE'S LUGGAGE IS ALL IN NOW—SHE'S GOT TO GET SOME THINGS TO FILL. GAMES—FOR GOODNESS' SAKE—WHAT'S THE TROUBLE? SHE'S CRYING.

4. BOO HOO—I WISH I HADN'T GONE AWAY—I CAN'T MAKE A THING TO WEAR—I FELT TERRIBLE.

5. O-U

POLLY AND HER PALS

(FOLLOW POLLY AND HER PALS IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

1. I HOPE I DON'T LOOK ANY WORSE FOR ALL THE CHRISTMAS PARTIES I'VE ATTENDED.

2. SORRY Y'ASKED ME, CARRIE, CAUSE I'VE MADE A NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION TO TELL NUTHIN' BUT THE TRUTH!

3. YOU LOOK PUNK!

4. THANK HEAVENS I DIDN'T MAKE ANY RIDICULOUS RESOLUTIONS AND CAN LIE WHEN I LIKE!

5. YOU LOOK SWELL, SAMUEL!!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

The Perfect Hostess

1. "THANK YOU, ANNIE—TELL MRS. CLEARY SHE IS A SPLENDID LAUNDRESS—I SHALL BE SAYING NICE THINGS ABOUT MRS. CLEARY—TELL BETCH A SHELL FEEL GLAD ALL OVER WHEN I TELL HER WHAT YOU SAID."

2. SEE, MRS. CLEARY, THAT'LL BE GRAND!

3. DIDDA HEAR WHAT THE LADY SAID? SHE THINKS SHE'S CLEARLY AS SWELL—SHE KINDA FORGOT TO MENTION YOU, ZERO—BUT ANYONE KIN SEE BY THE WAY SHE LOOKED AT YOU THAT SHE THINKS YOU'RE AN AWFUL SWELL FELLOW!

4. HI—BILLY BOY—LOOK AT THE BIG APPLE I GOT FOR YOU! NOW IF I KIN FIND A BONE OR SOMETHING IN THE CUPBOARD FOR ZERO—WE'LL HAVE A PARTY!

BARNEY GOOLE

(FOLLOW BARNEY'S ADVENTURES IN THE BIG COMIC SECTION OF THE SUNDAY ADVERTISER)

1. OH, BARNEY—YOU REALLY MEAN YOU WANT ME TO GO SOUTH WITH YOU? HOW LOVELY!!

2. AHH—I GOT HER IN A GOOD HUMOR—NOW SHE'S MY CHANCE.

3. WHAT?

4. YOU MEAN I AM TO SPEND MY MONEY FOR THIS TRIP??

5. WELL—ALL I'VE GOT TO SAY IS—

6. NO!

7. EAR SPECIALIST

8. OO SUMPIN' QUICK—DOC—I CAN HEAR HER!

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

The Eternal Woman

1. GEE, SPED, I'LL BET THE QUEEN WILL BE ANGRY WHEN SHE LEARNS WE'VE COME TO GET THE SECRET OF HER LASTING LIFE FROM HER.

2. GOSH, IMAGINE! LOST A LOVE BODY 2000 YEARS OLD! MUST BE ALL WINKLES AN' AMPLIFY FLEBBLE.

3. COME, WHITE FATHER, OUR GLORIOUS QUEEN LONNA COMMANDS YOUR PRESENCE—BURKE HER!

4. BUT THESE STRANGE MEN APPEAR TO BE CLOUTELLERS, UNCLE HAN!

5. THE CHIEF SAYS THE ROYAL CAVES ARE BEING UNDERGOING, TIM.

